CANST THOU BEAT IT?

Consider the editor! A child is born unto the wife of a merchant in town. The physician getteth 35 plunks. The editor writeth a stick and a half and telleth the multitude that the child tippeth the beam at nine pounds. Yea, he lieth even as a centurion. And the proud father giveth him a Cremona.

Behold the young one groweth up and graduateth. And the editor putteth in the paper a swell piece. Yea, a peach of a notice. He telleth of the wisdom of the young woman and of her exceeding comeliness. Like unto the roses of Sharon is she, and her gown is played up to beat the band. And the dressmaker getteth two score and four iron men. And the editor gets a note of thanks from the sweet girl graduate. (Maybe!)

And the daughter goeth on a journey. And the editor throweth himself on the story of a farewell party. It runneth a column solid. And the fair one remembereth him from afar with a picture postal card that costeth six for a jitney.

Behold, she returneth, and the youth of the town fall down and worship. She picketh one and lo, she picketh a lemon. But the editor calleth him one of the promising young men and getteth away with it. And they send unto the editor a bid to the wedding, and behold the bids are fashioned in a far city.

Flowers and long is the wedding notice which the editor printed. The minister getteth his bit.

The editor printeth a death notice, two columns of obituary, three lodge notices, a cubit of poetry and a card of thanks. And he forgetteth to read proof on the dead, and the darned thing cometh out "Gone to Her Last Roasting Place."

And all that are akin to the deceased jumpeth on the editor with exceeding great jumps. And they pulleth out their ads and cancelth their subs, and they swing the hammer even unto the third and fourth generations.—Eagle, Delano, Minn.

A FEW BUM CUSTOMERS

We have heard several complaints from fellow business men recently about ungrateful credit customers who threaten dire results when pressed for the money they owe. We appreciate just how the merchants feel because we have transacted business with undesirable of the same type; but our advice to others in credit lines is "operate your store on a business basis and do not worry over bad after effects."

One grocer complained about an account he had carried six months. The customer's income had been cut to the bone but he still had an income. The grocer pressed his customer for part payment of the account. The latter stopped trading with him, threatened to inform all of his friends and neighbors about said grocer's "unreasonableness," and incidentally failed to pay the account. A hardware dealer wrote a strong letter to one of his customers urging part payment on an eight month's term. The customer answered with an insulting letter in which he threatened to do all of his business somewhere else in the future and to let his many friends know of the high handed methods employed by Mr. Hardware Dealer.

Neither the grocer nor the hardware man have anything to worry about in these cases except the possible loss of the money owed them. Citizens of the above described type are in small minority in Barrington and have little or no influence with their friends. The large majority of people who trade in Barrington are honest, appreciative, and are willing to cooperate to the fullest reasonable extent with every merchant who gets their business.

NOT THE RIGHT WAY

The village board, like every other governing body, is hard pressed for funds to meet the necessary expenses of today. A member of the board suggested on two occasions

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

By National Editorial Association (Special to The Review)

CONGRESS has been talking considerably about the control of production in industry and in the control of crops in agriculture. Various proposals have been submitted at this session and there are in the offering for the special session. As a sideline of the control of crop production is the boycott of various foreign products now carried on under a propaganda campaign called "Buy American."

This activity is largely predicated on the theory that America is self sufficient, and that home-made goods should be purchased to the exclusion of foreign products. There are many arguments in favor of the plan. Unfortunately science has progressed to such an extent that substitutes are now available for many articles—a factor which would break down stability in industry and in agriculture. The divergence of opinion as to the effect of control of production on unemployment. The troublesome matter will probably be threshed out at the next session.

REACTIONS from the attempted assassination of President-elect Roosevelt are fresh in the minds of the people. The restrictions against aliens and liberality in providing expenses for secret service. This special government agency is one of the hardest working groups and probably undervalued considering the importance of their activities. There are few men in the secret service whose pay is about $2500 a year. Aside from the protection of the president and his family, the secret service operatives are charged with the suppression of counterfeiting and other crimes. Chief Moran told the house appropriations committee recently that he was considering the possibility of adding to his seven men after July 1, although he really needs 20 new operatives. The House State Bar association and Robert L. Conn, deputy clerk of the supreme court.

By unanimous vote, the state senate has confirmed the appointment of Hon. Edward J. Hughes, secretary of state, as to the fees collected from corporations during the month ending February 15, 1933. The fee was $93,282.77 as compared to $45,124.66 for the same month in 1932, showing an increase in fees collected for the month of $24,245.31. The state also issued 611 certificates of incorporation to corporations organized during the month of the date of the same month in 1932. For the same period there were also issued 46 licenses to foreign corporations to do business in this state for 1933 as compared to the issue of 50 licenses for 1932.

The senate has advanced the proposed sales tax legislation, third reading after increasing the tax to 3 per cent instead of 2. Amendment No. 1, which provides for a 3 per cent rate, has been tabled. Governor Hauer has sent a message to both houses urging adoption of the sales tax as an emergency move to provide unemployment funds. The proposition is making its fight on the ground that it is just another tax.

Following many complaints, Attorney General Otto Kerner has announced that he will act to halt exactly millions of dollars in exorbitant additional revenue might be raised by taxing the local business houses for license.

There are two groups of property tax payers in Barrington—those who pay taxes on their homes and those who pay taxes on their business properties. Some men are in both groups. Business property is assessed higher than residential property, both as to real estate and personally. Thus a man earning a living in Barrington is already paying additional taxes for the privilege of earning a living here. The business section of Barrington carries a material part of the burden of supporting the schools, police department, fire department, etc. What folly it would be to kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

NOT SO BAD

Commercial failures for the year 1932 reached the high record for all time in both number and amount—but even that high record consisted of less than two per cent of the mercantile concerns in the United States.

In other words, more than 98 per cent of the commercial concerns in this country have weathered the most severe depression in modern history.

This is convincing evidence of the rugged strength and the determination of the American business man to succeed.

For the depression. The difficulty in writing the case caused of these veteran leaders into legislation is the unwillingness of some legislators to accept outside advice. They would prefer to have the world believe any successful method of dealing with the depression originated in their own fertile brains. This attitude has been largely responsible for the settling of worthy reconstruction measures. The bankruptcy bill has been delayed largely because it did not harmonize with ideas of a few senators.

LESS THAN TEN DAYS remain before the gavel falls on this session of congress. The calendar are cluttered with thousands of bills, which have little or no chance of enactment. The authors of various measures which they regard important either to themselves or to the country are competing around to make their bill will insure a vote. There are indications that filibusters will develop effectively blocking definite action on vital legislation.

PASSAGE of the prohibition repeal bill in the senate was unexpected. The real fight now shifts to the house where it must be ratified by convention within seven years. The belief is expressed in some quarters that what's action was taken too late at that session. Various state legislatures were given consideration to the measure. The scheme of ratification is also continuing.

State News

The annual Lincoln dinner of the Peoria Bar association was held Friday evening, Feb. 10 at the Peor Hotel. J. Jones, Warren Hill, Jr., Charles E. Frederic, Hon. Young Warren W. Duncan and Frank K. Dunn. Judges Charles G. Briggie and L. E. Stone; Clerk Adam F. Hoch, Chicago, the moderator; and Hon. Henry Horner, secretary and treasurer respectively of the Illinois State Bar association; and Robert L. Conn, deputy clerk of the supreme court.

The proposition to call a constitutional convention cannot be submitted to the voters of Illinois at the judicial election June 5, Attorney General Otto Kerner has declared in an opinion to the house of representatives. In a message directed to Speaker Arthur Hoar, the attorney general said that judicial election in June is not considered a general election and for that reason the proposition cannot be submitted until November 1934. The legislature is considering the constitutional convention plan, and final action is expected to be taken in the house soon.

Headlines Most Dangerous
A wound on the face or head inflicted by the bite of a rabid animal is over 10 times more dangerous from the standpoint of hydrophobia than a wound on the leg. It is over five times as dangerous as a wound on the arm. It is fully 12 times as dangerous as a wound on the trunk of the body.

A bite by a rabid animal on the bare skin is 10 times more dangerous in respect to hydrophobia than a wound made through clothing. A deep wound is eight times more dangerous than a superficial wound.

These statements are based upon an analysis, compiled by the League of Nations, of more than 65,000 cases in which the bites inflicted were made by animals in whom definite evidence of rabies was established. Most of the cases in this series occurred during the year 1929. All of the cases treated were given anti-rabic treatment. In only 12 of these precaution rabies developed and proved fatal in one out of each 210 cases.

Baptists Defeat St. Paul as Salem Team Wins First

St. Paul, Salem Co-Chair Tournament In Planned for Next Week

The Baptists spent the three days last week which they dedicated to the St. Paul 35 to 29 in a fast chess game. The defeat dropped them into a first place tie with the Methodists. They were the only one to enter in the evening session which closed in the first round. The Salem team with the result that Salem as Paul's co-holder of the championship.

The opening game proved for level that the previous week's Salem battle. The Methodists, decidedly "off" and the Baptists very much "on." They were through the basket from all parts of the floor with Harold leading them with 12 field goals. The tie as Salem chalked up a victory.

The second game was marked by the high percentage of shots the Salem slipped through the hoop. The game was different with Paul putting on a rally that kept the score until only two points separated the teams with four minutes left to play. The Baptists are off to start a couple of nice games in the closing minutes of the fighting east-iders, Wolf St. Paul with 14 points and the made six baskets for the Baptists.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S TRAVELS

By James W. Brooks

THE WANTED that WASHINGTON AND HIS TATTERED SOLDIERS SPENT AT VALLEY FORGE WAS A MOST TRYING EXPERIENCE. MANY OF HIS MEN DESERTED AND IT WAS ONLY THROUGH WASHINGTON'S COURAGE AND LEADERSHIP THAT HE KEPT HIS ARMY UNBROKEN. WASHINGTON HIMSELF OCCUPIED A TENT FOR A WHILE.

DAY THESE ALL MANK MONUMENTS AND LANDMARKS THAT TESTIFY TO THE EXTREMITY THAT IS HELD BY OUR COUNTRY FOR WASHINGTON AND HIS MEN FOR THE MILEAGE THEY WENT THROUGH IN THAT WINTER OF 1777-1778. THE FACT THAT SCARCELY TWENTY MILES AWAY THE BRITISH WERE COMFORTABLY QUARTERED IN PHILADELPHIA ADDS TO OUR SYMPATHY FOR WHAT THE AMERICANS ENDURED AT VALLEY FORGE.
