Country Towns Group Would Organize Against Any Consolidation Plan
The citizens of every community are therefore worried against any attempt to extend into that the suburban area group is not working smoothly. No aid in retaining its present integrity and the right to govern itself on all matters of purely local concern. Such attempts are false and without a scintilla of evidence to prove them.

Placed and Lohman Furniture Co.
which recently sold the major part of its furniture stock at auction, is being completely re-decorated in preparation for an opening with a new stock of furniture.

Marked by Cow

In Old Barrington

Nasher & Plagge Cheesebox Factory built in 1800. Was located on Lincoln avenue, west of Fourth street. Later moved to S.W. corner Washington and N. Cook St. and converted into a 2-ft. building.

The price of cheese boxes was once an important matter in Barrington, for the welfare of a number of families depended upon the operation of the cheese factory.

We wonder if these workers saved for the "rainy day." For times changed—conditions changed—and cheese boxes were "out" for Barrington.

Are you saving for just such a contingency? We invite you to share in the convenience of this handy, modern bank.
