plot that provides intriguing material for the virtuous new war. The heat wave that swept the country last week held no terror for the guests at The Catlow. Their large cooling system proved entirely adequate, and while the thermometer registered 90 degrees and more outside, the supply of cool, washed air kept the temperature of the theatre down to a pleasant 70 degrees.

Palatine

High School Holds Class Night Class night for the 1933 high school class was held Tuesday evening in Cutting hall of the Palatine Township High School. An usual the hall was filled with relatives and friends of the class members. The following program was given by members of the class.

Class history, written by LaVelle Couture and Alfred Regebner—read by Harold Bergman. Class prophecy, written by Otto Fyshan and Verma Kramber—read by Harold Bergman and Judith Carroll. The gifts to the class were distributed by Dorothy Gerhart and Arthur Haldeman. Solo, "Sylvia"—Judith Carroll. Presentation of class colors to the Junior class—Alfred Regebner. Miss Elm Moss accepted the colors. Class song closed the exercises. An exhibition of the beautiful work done by the girls and boys was shown in the display room. The dresses made by the girls were up to date and very attractive. In the contest, Frances Cropper was first prize; Eleanor Kraft, second, and Louise Weston third. The furniture display was most interesting, each piece well and well adapted to any home. The boys were deserving a great deal of credit for the work.

33 Graduates From 8th Grade The eighth grade graduating exercises of the grade school district No. 13 were held last Wednesday night in Cutting hall at the Palatine Township High school. A play entitled, "The Five Stages of Homer" under the direction of Miss Rose Bolton was enjoyed by all.

The class will be given by Margaret Holland; the class prophecy by Caroline Turpey. Gen Arps, president of the board, presented the diploma to the young people.
