All Veterans' Day at State Fair August 20

It is planned to have an all-veterans' day at the Illinois state fair, Sunday, August 20.

Wheat Production in Illinois is Greater

It is estimated that Illinois will have an output of 25,944,000 bushels of wheat this year as compared to 21,750,000 bushels last year.

Co-Operation

Anglo-American co-operation is not to be based on sentimental talk about a common language and destiny, but on a community of economic interests.

Smallest Eight-Day Ticker

An eight-day ticker, no bigger than a dime, and more than one hundred years old, is one of the priceless treasures of the Waltham Clock Company of Waltham, Mass.

Miss Esther Strouss, 107 N. Garfield Street, spent the weekend at the home of her parents at Walnut.

Miss Strouss and Miss Agnes Welch are attending Northwestern university this summer.

Mrs. Edwin Plenge, 200 W. Bush Street, will entertain the W. C. T. U. Thursday evening, June 27.

Mrs. V. D. Hawley will have charge of the program.

A group of people from Barrington attended an Eastern Star party at the home of Mrs. Amy Leslie in Lake Zurich Friday afternoon.

Rev. Hermann Koenig and his father, J. H. Koenig, attended the Evangelical conference of the Northern Illinois district at Elmhurst from Monday until Thursday of this week.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Throp, Mrs. E. M. Block, and Mrs. H. N. Pierce returned to Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., Saturday after attending the funeral of Mrs. A. Mann in Erastown on Thursday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Clark, 213 North Avenue, have returned from a vacation of two weeks spent with relatives in Mississippi.

Louis Jankins of Hartwood farm is a medical patient at the Barrington General Hospital.

William Grunau, 319 S. Grove Avenue, is able to get out again after having been confined to his bed for a week.

THE greatest service of the modern funeral director is that of lifting the load of responsibility from the shoulders of the bereaved.

From the moment that he is called, he assumes charge of the many details which require attention. We give special attention to this comforting service.
