St. Anne, St. Paul and Methodists Win in Openers

The St. Anne, Methodist, and St. Paul teams of the Barrington Church softball league were the three teams to come through their first scheduled games with a clean slate.

Both Salem teams, which are the result of a split-up of the powerful Salem team of last season, suffered setbacks in their opening games.

Games scheduled for next Monday evening are Salem 1 versus Baptists on the new diamond, Salem 11 versus St. Paul on the middle diamond and St. Anne and Methodist on the east at Wisconsin and Lake Grove aligned in the common American League by popular vote.

Schedules have been redesigned, a move never before considered possible, and players will be transferred hundreds of miles to give visitors to the World's Fair an opportunity to see such stars as Lou Gehrig, Babe Ruth, at Wisconsin and Lefty Grove aligned in the common American League.

'Greatest Baseball Game' Will Thrill Fair Fans July 6

Leading Major League Stars to Gather for World Fair Visitors

To baseball fans, one of the really "big games" will be the meeting at Comiskey Park on July 6 of two all-star teams picked from the ranks of the National and American Leagues by popular vote.

Schedules have been redesigned, a move never before considered possible, and players will be transferred hundreds of miles to give visitors to the World's Fair an opportunity to see such stars as Lou Gehrig, Babe Ruth, at Wisconsin and Lefty Grove aligned in the common American League.
