Mat Do Kees Think About?
The mat do kees, a type of fish, are being raised in large quantities in the state of Illinois. They are a popular food and are also used for medicinal purposes.

Jack Welch Warehouse Moved to Northwest Packing Company Plant

The Jack Welch warehouse, which has been in the city for many years, has been moved to the new Northwest Packing Company plant at the intersection of North and Dundee streets.

With the refrigerating plant at its disposal, Mr. Welch will be prepared to deliver cold beverages. Being located outside of the village, he will be able to deliver in fair competition with other warehouses who occupy the local license fee.

The Welch warehouse move will not affect the Northwest Packing Company, which will operate as before.

Diamonds
The diamond is the hardest and most brilliant of precious stones. It is composed of pure carbon and unlike most minerals occurs in single crystals.

Holly Oak Trees
The leaves on the holly oak are almost entirely green and a mossy green. The tree is native to the southern states and is also found in California.

Horse Shoe, Good Luck, Universal Superstition

The origin of the popular belief that a horse shoe brings good luck is so ancient that it is literally lost in the mists of time.

The reasons for this were the electric refrigerating plant in the vicinity for a beer warehouse, and a point of unfair competition from outside warehouses distributing in Barrington.

"Charms" of Emeralds New Appeal to the Eyesight

As far back as 1600 B. C., emeralds were mined by the ancients who found them worth a "king's ransom" among the old world monarchs.

Our Lady of Lourdes Is in Southwestern France

Lourdes is a town of southwestern France in the department of Hautes-Pyrenees, at the foot of the Pyrenees. It is a city of 10,000 people and is one of the most beautiful in the world.

The origin of the Lourdes is uncertain. Its fame is associated with the statue of the Virgin Mary which is believed in the Roman Catholic world to have miraculously appeared to a peasant girl named Bernadette Soubirous in 1858.

Zoe Fish That Fishes

The rarest fish in the world, to be seen in the London Zoo, is an Angler fish—with its head on a stalk. It is called the "Zoe fish" because it is so rare.

The New Testament

The New Testament was originally written in Greek. It is not claimed that any of the manuscripts written by the apostles themselves are in existence, but numerous early copies in use in the Christian churches of Europe, Asia, and Africa, from which the New Testament was translated into Latin and other languages, are preserved in the Vatican library at Rome.

Population by Sex
The excess of females in the old or countries of the world is largely due to the excess of males in the newer countries. In the United States there are about 1,500,000 more males than females; in Great Britain the excess is about 1,000,000; in France, about 2,000,000; in Germany, nearly 3,000,000; in Canada, Australia, Argentina, Ceylon and China have more males than females.

Scarecrow Contest

The Illinois corn belt is regarded by farmers as a post and many are the ingenious methods employed to scare him away. At Dunkirk, Kent, a contest was recently held to find the most effective scarecrow. The idea was to confront with old clothes, rags and what not the angriest farmer. The competition was open to boys and girls of the village. A twelve-year-old boy, named John, won the contest.

THERE'S a washday bargain you may not fully realize because it isn't usually price-tagged. It's the electricity you use to run your washing machine. The power that swishes all the dirt out of clothes in the tub and wrings them out for the line costs just a fraction over a penny an hour in the average northern Illinois home. Less than 3 cents' worth of electricity takes all the hard work out of washday.
