Algonquin Hands Barrington Bears an 8 to 4 Defeat

Winners Rally to Score in Eighth Inning for Victory

The Barrington Bears were defeated 8 to 4 by Algonquin's Own Sunday at Algonquin. With the score tied at four all in the eighth inning the local swagmen allowing four runs on four hits and two errors. Poor base running by the Bears in the earlier innings also contributed to their defeat.

Table with 4 columns: Team, AB, R, H, E. Rows include Algonquin, Barrington, and Totals.

Deaf as an Adder

Science is convinced that fishes are not affected by air-borne sounds, but are sensitive to very light disturbance of the "medium" in which they live. Everybody realizes that water carries sounds clearer than the quietest air; and we know that along the side of every fish runs a line of nerve-cells close beneath the skin, which are sensitive to shocks far too slight for us to feel.
