

TANGLE WIVES

Peggy Shupe

THE STORY

"You're young, you're beautiful, you're rich, you're successful, you're everything that a man could want in a woman. Why do you want to get married?"

"I don't know," she said, looking at her husband. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"Oh, no, you've been so kind. So wonderful. Why do you want to get married?"

"I don't know," she said, looking at her husband. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

"I don't know," she said, looking at him with a questioning look. "I just feel like I should get married."

"But you're not in love with me, are you?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning look.

Cary

Wascher-Nowicki Nuptials
A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday when Miss Lela Wascher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wascher, became the bride of Henry C. Nowicki of Chicago. The wedding took place at the Catholic church with Father Kilroy officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Nowicki will make their home at Chicago Heights.

J. Domoniewski Dies
Mr. A. Kowalski received word last week of the death of his grandfather, John Domoniewski of Seymour, Wis. Forty-five years ago Mr. Domoniewski farmed near Barrington in the neighborhood of the White School. He was 90 years and 5 months old.

Members of the Cary Woman's club who attended a style show given by the Algonquin Woman's club Wednesday evening, Nov. 2, were: Mesdames J. A. Kowalski, C. Brown, M. G. Stewart, Juliana Neely, Mrs. and Mrs. Anton Homola, daughter Helen, son William, Mrs. Elizabeth Lank, daughter Elizabeth, son Frank and Frank Smith visited with Vernon Smith and family in Elgin, Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lank, daughter Elizabeth and son Frank of Maywood spent the week-end with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. John Einbeck and Gusie Miller of Chicago were visitors over the weekend at the Smith-Johnson home.

Chas. Hosenka spent Saturday at Chicago. Mrs. Sophia Smith, Walter Smith and daughter Elaine, Anne Smith of The Plains and Mrs. Charles Wagner of Crystal Lake were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Buchman.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pokorny was christened Francis Peter at a ceremony Sunday. Father Kilroy officiated. Mr. and Mrs. James Hinds of Elgin were the sponsors.

George Homola has left Prairie Du Rocher where he has a contract for the state highway department. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kraus and sons Earl, Harold and Fred, Jr. were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kraus.

George Boomer attended the United Foreign Missionary conference, at the Chicago Stadium Sunday. The principal speaker was E. S. Starnes, noted missionary. Bishop Ernest Lynn Wolford presided.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsay of Crystal Lake were dinner guests at the home of their aunt Mrs. Sophronia Lindsay Sunday. They were joined by Mrs. Charles W. Wagner of Crystal Lake Sunday. They were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peterson have moved here from Lockport, and are making their home with the latter's mother, Mrs. E. Bush. William Wanzel, sister Ella and Anna and Marie Louise of Elgin, were guests at the homes of James Stewart and George Lowe Friday.

Louis Zemanek of Deerpark, Wis. who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Bostek and son, was here while attending a Century of Progress, left for home Sunday. Mrs. Ignatz, Joseph Kutka and Mrs. John of Chicago, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Surbeck visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Apperbeck of Crystal Lake Sunday.

Mrs. A. O. Hack and Miss Idelle Arps spent Thursday at a Century of Progress. The teachers of the public school accompanied by Mrs. Ella Baldwin and Mrs. Frank Hilbert attended the State Teachers' meeting at Joliet Friday. Miss Dorothy Neley spent Sunday in Chicago, with Miss Gertrude Steiman.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Schickman and sister Mrs. Matt Schoger were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kruth of Chicago Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kilroy and wife daughter of Chicago were dinner guests at the home of Andrew Krich, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kraus and daughter Hannah, Mrs. Albert Kraus, Gust Gerstman, Mrs. Lank and daughter Gertrude, Mrs. Lena Miller, John Storm and daughter Lucile and son Clarence, attended the funeral of William Storm of Dundee, Saturday. Mrs. Storm formerly lived near Cary and was a sister-in-law of John Storm.

Mrs. Herman Kamholz, retired from Chicago Saturday where he had been attending her sister, who is ill. The public welfare department of Algonquin Woman's club with Mrs. H. Weir as chairman, has extended an invitation to all members to their meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 15. Mrs. W. M. Courley will be the principal speaker. The second regular meeting of the Woman's club will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Buresh November 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Piska, daughter Alice and son, spent the weekend with relatives and friends here. Mrs. Dora Miller and daughter Helen of Elgin who have just returned from a three months' trip in Europe were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Schickman Saturday.

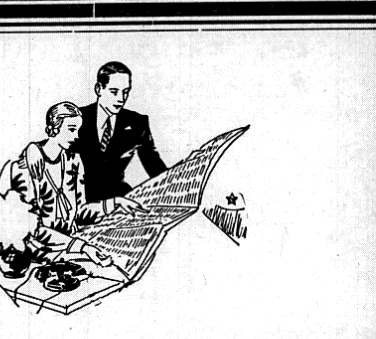

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe and Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Dahn of Algonquin attended a Century of Progress Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brizina, Milan Sucky, Charles Fritz Jr. and Don-

SAVINGS MORTGAGES INVESTMENTS BONDS INSURANCE

WE ARE EQUIPPED TO HANDLE YOUR INVESTMENT NEEDS—PROMPTLY AND SAFELY

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of BARRINGTON

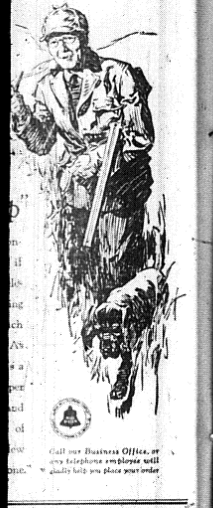

Your Best Paying Investment...

The Barrington Review

Will you accept an opportunity to invest $2.50 in a gilt edge security which will pay you the following interest:

- ★ 70 cents in trade coupons at the time you make the investment. Coupons are as good as cash at Barrington stores. (See Ad on Page 5).
 - ★ 5 cents or 10 cents weekly or even more in money saved from your food bill. (Review readers do this by planning their shopping from grocery and meat ads in the newspaper).
 - ★ 25 cents to a dollar or more two or three times a year in the form of money saved by selling a "dead elephant" or buying a needed article at a bargain price. (This is the experience of consistent readers of classified ads in The Review).
 - ★ Many dollars saved throughout the year from the cost of clothing, hardware, drugs, furniture, etc., because you take advantage of special merchandise offerings advertised in The Review.
- Can you afford to pass up such an investment when in addition to paying the interest as listed above, it will pay back your original investment of $2.50 in the form of interesting reading of all the local news of your community for a year?

This wonderful investment opportunity is available now. With one exception it will be available later. The first item listed above, the free trade coupons, will be available only for a short period of time. As soon as a definite number of coupons have been issued, we will withdraw that offer.

Call our Business Office, or any business employee will gladly help you place your order.

... because ...

Our Public Service Store also featuring a wide selection of other floor lamps and table lamps—moderately priced.

MORE THAN LIGHT

Did you ever stop to think that electric means much more than good light in your home?

Electric means for you on Monday, Tuesday, clean your floors daily. Keep your food cool, your clothes and curtains dry by radiating light and electricity by radiating heat.

It is clean, efficient, made around entirely as your command.

Now home use less than half of the electricity for illumination. But you pay for the increasing use of electric lights, radiators and other electric appliances, your local monthly bill has been slightly inflated because of the constantly increasing cost of fuel.

Cuba Township

Mathew's Club to Meet
Mrs. F. Lagaschule and Mrs. F. Kirby will be hostesses to the Mother's club at the Kraus home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelsey were visitors in Chicago Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Balnes and family and Mrs. Mary Balnes of Winnetka called at the Kraus home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haemusson and Mrs. and Carl Klingenberg and son Donald of Cary called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lagaschule Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. George Duke of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Riley and children Frances and Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Zolotor and children Bernard Jr. and Helen were Sunday guests of Mrs. Charles McGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Flock are moving to the Spencer house on the county line.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Krien of Elgin, Mrs. Tille Krien of Carpenter's Mill, Miss Adeline Maria were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frenken.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Strosback and son Carl, Otto Jr. and Donald of The Plains and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ryan and son Robert of Chicago were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kraus.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pichen and daughter Shirley of Cary enjoyed Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lagaschule.

Mrs. William Hafer enjoyed several days with Mrs. F. Schickman of Chicago. They also visited a Century of Progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Muska of Crystal Lake and Blanche Muska attended a Century of Progress Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan of Chicago enjoyed Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kraus.

Mrs. H. D. Kelsey and children moved to Woodstock Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pitsch enjoyed several days with the former's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Pitsch of Bristol, Ind. Miss Mary Gardner moved to Woodstock Saturday.

H. D. Kelsey is in Springfield on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirby and daughter Myrtle moved to Maywood Sunday.

Nothing New

No matter how new a thing may seem, sometimes somewhere it has happened before.

... because ...