Roy J. Stewart

Republican Candidate for

State Representative

Eighth Illinois District
(Boone, McHenry and Lake Counties)

Roy J. Stewart of Woodstock, a former member of the Illinois Legislature during the 55th General Assembly, is again a candidate for the nomination from the Eighth Senatorial District, which comprises Lake, McHenry and Boone Counties.

Mr. Stewart was born and raised on a farm near Richmond, Ill. He served McHenry County as Chief Deputy Sheriff from 1914 to 1918, was elected Sheriff and served as such from 1918 to 1922. During his term as Sheriff the "Search and Seizure Law" went into effect, making it unlawful to transport intoxicating liquor within the State. Mr. Stewart, as Sheriff, handled this situation in a manner very competently and effectively, with little expense to the county.

In 1922 he was elected County Treasurer, and as such installed a complete new system of collecting taxes, which system saved the county a large sum of money each year. The same system is now used in nearly all counties in the state.

His services in public office have well qualified him to serve his District, and his ability is not questioned by anyone who knows him. At the present time he is Supervisor of the Township of Dorr in McHenry County, Ill., and attending to the arduous duties of conducting relief work, which under the law is imposed upon his office. The records of his office will show that Dorr Township stands near to the top in the matter of faithful and effective handling of this big problem.

In his former years he was an employe of the Oliver Typewriter Company in Woodstock, which employment gives Mr. Stewart a familiarity with the problems of industry, and he is well qualified to meet the problems now confronting the people in regard to both labor and capital.

His former services make him the logical man for the Republican Party to send to the Legislature as their representative from the Eighth Senatorial District. In the present political turmoil, the need of an experienced man, with force and leadership, is the demand of the present time.
