

"Happy Landing," With Sonja Henie, Coming to Catlow

"Damsel in Distress" With Burns and Allen and Astaire, Showing

George Burns and Gracie Allen, whose screen and radio antics have made them world-wide favorites in both fields of entertainment, are co-starring with the nimble-footed Fred Astaire in "A Damsel in Distress," now playing at the Catlow theatre.

With its P. G. Wodehouse story and Gershwin music, the picture is hailed as one of the year's foremost offerings, and the Burns and Allen duo supply a large share of the delightful complications. Astaire has the role of an American dancer in London, and Burns is his hard-working press agent, with Miss Allen as his secretary. Between them, the two funsters manage to play havoc with the romances of Astaire and Joan Fontaine, who has the little role as an English girl in matrimonial difficulties, and the results are said to be hilarious in the extreme.

After a long separation, during which each appeared in pictures without the other, Gene Raymond and Ann Southern are reunited in "She's Got Everything."

The film is said to be their best co-starring vehicle. A romping story of a penniless society girl whose creditors are trying to marry her off to a wealthy man, "She's Got Everything" is loaded with hilarious situations, suiting the peculiar talents of the able cast, which includes Victor Moore, Helen Broderick, Parkyakarkus, Billy Gilbert, Sally Ward and William Brinkman.

"She Loved a Fireman," starring Dick Foran, Ann Sheridan, and Robert Armstrong, plays the double feature bill Saturday with "She's Got Everything."

From Darryl F. Zanuck and his 20th Century-Fox hit creators comes Sonja Henie in a silvery, sumptuous, superlative musical, "Happy Landings," coming to the Catlow theatre Sunday for two days. Winging its way from the Norwegian gay festivals to New York's winter spectacles, the new show brings a love-laden Sonja to the arms of her "One in a Million" sweetheart, Don Ameche.

Jean Hershold, Ethel Merman and Cesar Romero are featured in the cast which includes Billy Gilbert, the Raymond Scott Quintet, Wally Vernon and Leah Ray.

Dick Foran, husky red-headed singing cowboy, knows 487 cowboy songs. Held on... pardon. The number is now 476 as he sings three new ones written especially for the current picture, "The Devil's Saddle Legion," by M. Jerome and Jack Scholl, coming to the Catlow Tuesday.

On the double feature bill Tuesday with "The Devil's Saddle Legion," is "One Way Passage," starring William Powell and Kay Francis.
