August Nerheim, 89, Celebrates Birthday

August Nerheim celebrated his 89th birthday Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. Linders of Cuba township. Although he has been in ill health for the last several months and is confined to the house, Mr. Nerheim is in good spirits and mentally active.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Essig of Franklin Park, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Asche of La Grange and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sterbend of Antioch visited Mr. Nerheim Monday evening. Plans had been made for a larger gathering of friends and relatives but his physical condition did not warrant it. He received many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Nerheim came to the United States in 1880 and he later became employed as a blacksmith of the Studebaker corporation, makers of automobiles, at South Bend, Ind., where he remained for 30 years. Later he became farming and in 1918 purchased the property near Barrington, where he resides with Mrs. Linders, the youngest of 13 children.

Mrs. Nerheim died shortly after the family moved to this vicinity. He is the eldest resident member of Salem Evangelical church, Rev. J. B. Elfrink, 90 years old, of Elmhurst, being the eldest member of the congregation. Five years before coming to this country, Mr. Nerheim and six other men and their wives started the first Evangelical church in Essen, Germany, and after arriving in this country he was one of a group which organized a church band in South Bend.

Dinner at School

Forty-seven persons, including members of the Barrington Lions club, members of the high school faculty and other guests, enjoyed a dinner cooked and served by Miss Margaret Everett's pupils in the home economics department of the high school Monday evening.

Following the delicious dinner, the guests were shown through the building by Superintendent Erman S. Smith and other members of the faculty.
