Barrington Baseball Club Trounced by West Chicago Sunday, 11-3

Make Nine Errors in Fifth Loss Out of Eight Starts

Batting and Fielding Weak; H. Meiners Allows Two Earned Runs

The Barrington baseball club met with its fifth defeat in eight starts at West Chicago last Sunday by dropping a game to the West Chicago team, 11 to 2.

Errors again proved a major factor in deciding the outcome of the game. The West Chicagona gained only two earned runs, the rest being scored on errors or walts. The locals had a total of nine errors. Etters and Reick both socked out two-baggers for the locals in the eighth and ninth innings, respectively, but failed to get any further. Fisher and Jensen supplied the West Chicago doubles. O. Timm of the host team got the only derent blow of the game in the tourth stanss.
