

The Adventures of Marco Polo

Coming to Catlow

"Three Blind Mice" to Start
Three Day Engagement
Wednesday

Robert Taylor's wardrobe in his newest picture cost the unbelievable sum of $20!

Although Taylor holds the reputation of being one of the best-dressed men of the screen, he discards the title temporarily for his role in "Three Comrades," playing currently at the Catlow theatre. It consists of two second-hand ready-made suits, a pair of unclaimed suits in a male street store and a full-dress suit.

On Saturday for one day only, the Catlow theatre presents Victor McLaglen, Brian Donlevy and Louise Rainer ("Gypsy Rose Lee") in "Battle of Broadway."

"The Adventures of Marco Polo," filmed from a screen play by Robert E. Sherwood, was directed by Archie Mayo. Gary Cooper, in the title role, is supported by a notable cast including Sigrid Gurle, Norwegian, who makes her film debut as a Chinese Princess with whom he falls in love; Basil Rathbone, Ernest Truax, George Barbier, Blinnie Barnes and Lotus Lie. It is billed for Sunday and Monday.

An unusual character actress who has been stealing scenes from players for 15 years makes her latest appearance in "The Catlow." Laurel and Hardy musical production coming Tuesday to the Catlow.

She is Dinah, veteran comedy burro, trained by Tony Sampa and Marco, caretaker of the Roach ranch for 15 years.

Dinah has appeared in more than 40 shorts and features throughout that period. A favorite of the studio side, the burro is completely camera-wise, and the Roach company has refused several offers up to $500 for her purchase by other studios.

With the completion of his comedy role in "Three Blind Mice," starring Loretta Young and Joel McCrea, Stuart Erwin marked his 50th movie and his 10th year in movietown.

Opening on Wednesday for three days at the Catlow, "Three Blind Mice" stars Loretta Young and Joel McCrea, who is playing in "Stuart Erwin, Marjorie Weaver, Pauline Moore, Blinnie Barnes and Jane Darwell in the cast.
