

"Jezebel," Starring Bette Davis, Here Sunday, Monday

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" Now Showing at Catlow

If you have ever read Grimm's folk tales—and who hasn't?—there's a real treat coming for you when "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" will be shown at the Catlow theatre, beginning Wednesday for four days, with a matinee Saturday afternoon only.

More important yet is the fact that "Snow White" is produced in Technicolor by Walt Disney in full feature length! It is an event in film history ranking in significance with the birth of the first talkie! It's not only a delightful vision of Gnomeland and its wonderful little people screened with marvelous beauty, and sizzling with rollicking comedy, but is dramatically appealing. The story of the jealous Queen's attempted murder of the little Princess, who is valiantly aided by her tiny pals, the dwarfs, is a genuine thriller with trenchant appeal for young and old.

In 1935 Bette Davis received the Motion Picture Academy Award for the best screen performance of the year, the most coveted recognition that a star can receive. And now, in 1938, it looks very much as though she will again be the winner for her performance in "Jezebel," the drama which comes to the Catlow Sunday and Monday.

Cast as a devastating siren of New Orleans in pre-Civil war days, Bette's portrayal is said to be magnificent by all the reviewers. No motion picture can be better than its cast.

That is the opinion of Edmund Gralinger, producer of "The Crime of Dr. Hallett," which comes to the Catlow Tuesday. He took especial pains in selecting the cast for this picture of primal love and hate against a background of science and the jungle.

Gralinger had to beat the motion picture bushes for months before he was able to sign Ralph Bellamy, Josephine Hutchinson, John King, William Gargan and Barbara Read, the principals he desired.

"Boss Rider of Gun Creek," starring Buck Jones, with Muriel Evans, Harry Clark, and Tom Chatterton plays the double feature bill Tuesday.

"When you get to be 40, your mind sort of begins to cheat its cad. You stop going off half-cocked and learn moderation. That's when you begin to live!"

Such is the rural wisdom of the two-titled, tender-hearted country editor played by Will Rogers in one of his greatest films, "Life Begins at 40." Suggested by the famous Walter B. Phipps book, the film comes to the Catlow on Wednesday for one night only.

Acclaimed by aviation experts the most authentic aviation story ever filmed, "Test Pilot," starring Clark Gable, Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy comes to the Catlow next Thursday for a three-day engagement.

Based on an original story by Lieutenant - Commander Frank Wead, the story is steeped in colorful traditions of the men who are building the future of aviation, test pilots who try new ships before they are approved.

Mrs. Percy Drover describes a good way to use left over meat:

RICE AND CURRY

Heat two tablespoons of butter, then add two sliced apples and two or three sliced onions. Fry until brown, then add two tablespoons of flour, two level teaspoons of curry powder and one tablespoon of sugar. When this is well mixed, add ground meat, any left over gravy and water. Let simmer for 10 or more minutes. Salt to taste. Serve on rice.

With it, she likes to serve a salad made as follows:

SALAD

Raw carrots ground, chopped celery, apples diced and nut meats. Combine this with salad dressing. Her dessert is something new in bread pudding, made as follows:

Soak for ¼ hour, 1 cup of sour milk and 1 cup of bread crumbs. Add: 1 cup brown sugar ¼ cup shortening ¼ cup of flour 2 tablespoons molasses, 1 teaspoon of soda, raisins. Bake in greased pan ¼ hour.
