C. B. Griswold, 76, Native of Wauconda, Is Buried Wednesday

Capitola B. Griswold, 76 years old, a native of Wauconda and a resident of that community most of his life, died suddenly at the home of his nephew, Hollis G. Derry, in Wauconda Sunday morning.

Mr. Griswold was a member of a family of eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griswold. Four brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.

At the age of 10 years, he went with his parents to Coffeyville, Kan., making the trip in a covered wagon. After spending two years there they returned to Wauconda. Mr. Griswold made his home there until 1902 when he went to Independence, Ore., for four years, returning to Wauconda where he remained until 1916 when he moved to Waukegan with his nephew.

During his active years he was a painter and well known in Wauconda and the Barrington region. Surviving besides his nephew are one sister, Mrs. Caddie Turner of Grayslake.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Federated church in Wauconda. Rev. R. C. Hallock officiated and burial was in Wauconda cemetery.
