

Barrington Hills Friends at Wedding in Chicago Saturday

BARRINGTON HILLS. — The wedding of Miss Betty Howland, granddaughter of H. A. Howland of Barrington, to Nelson Brewer Jr. of Beverly Hills, last Saturday evening in Bethany Union church, Chicago, was attended by a few Barrington friends. It was a beautiful and most impressive service, the lovely raftered church with its many candles and white flowers, providing a most harmonious background for the bride and her attendants.

The concert harpist, Miss Mildred Dilling, who is an aunt of Mr. Brewer, accompanied by the pipe organ, gave the musical numbers which preceded the ceremony. At the Shoreland hotel many friends of both families offered their best wishes and congratulations to the young couple, and enjoyed the dancing and beautiful supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer left on a trip into Canada and Europe to go from Quebec by boat to Bermuda. They will be at home after August 1 at 2026 Hopkins Place, Beverly Hills.

Honor Young Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jerrens gave a tea Sunday afternoon at their home on Brinker road, complimentary to three newly-engaged couples, Miss Christabel Wheeler of Lake Forest and William Priestley of New York, Miss Helen Gillette and John Merryweather of Chicago and Miss Billie White of Barrington and Thomas Heyworth of Chicago.

Two parties are to be given on next Sunday in honor of Miss Billie White and Thomas Heyworth. Mr. and Mrs. F. William Jr. will give an informal breakfast to 36 friends and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hyde Gillette and Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Payson are entertaining with an out-door supper party.

Miss White and Mr. Heyworth are also to be guests of honor at two dinner parties on the Northshore this week.

Hold Closing Service

The Barrington branch of the Sunday school of St. James Episcopal church, Dundee, held its last service of the season at a meeting Sunday. A special service marked the closing day, and at its conclusion the children, all carrying potted red geraniums, followed the choir from the church and on the lawn planted their flowers in a large design of the cross. The annual picnic will be held this year on June 22 at the Samuel Rose home. Mrs. Rose has charge of the arrangements.

Plan Camp Fund Drive

It is time again for interest in Camp Algonquin, and on Wednesday afternoon at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Potter Smith, plans were made for the starting of the drive for funds. Mrs. Astrid Save, director of the camp, was present and spoke to the group.

Entertain Soup Club

The Soup club met with Mr. and Mrs. Sanford White last Friday night. It was the occasion for a special celebration as it was the central committee. It will be free to all. There will be a 4,000 pound beef, barbecued under the direction of professional chefs from Southern Illinois. During the day there will be a free golf tournament, horseshoe pitching and softball games, with cups and trophies for the winners. A special event will be a bicycle race from Chicago to the club house at Fox Lake, a distance of 53 miles, it was reported.

25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hallberg. Mrs. Hallberg added a charming touch by wearing her wedding gown.

Celebration to Mark 90th Anniversary of Busse Family in U. S.

A unique family celebration will occur at the Elk Grove forest preserve, Sunday, July 3, when the Busse family, direct descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Friedrich Busse will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the arrival of the Busse pioneer family in Elk Grove township upon July 3, 1847.

The date of the celebration falls upon the exact date of the anniversary. Previous family reunions were held in 1928, in honor of the 75th anniversary and in 1908 commemorating the fiftieth anniversary.

With large families, the direct descendants have multiplied into the hundreds and the reunion will be as big as an event of its kind as ever occurred in Northwest Cook county. The pioneer settlers had six children, four of whom were boys and a majority of the families reside within a few miles of the Busse homestead where their forebears first settled.

Fifteen years ago, when the last family census was taken, there were 207 great grandchildren, and 228 great great grandchildren.

A celebration of this magnitude requires a lot of planning and in order that all of the 550 branches of the family may become part of the affair, a committee of six has been appointed, comprising one grandchild from each of the children of the original settlers. They are:

Alfred Busse, representing the Christian Busse families.

William C. Wille, representing the Fred Busse families.

Richard Tonne, representing the Mrs. F. Tonne branch.

F. W. Busse, representing the Henry Busse family.

William J. Busse, Jr., representing the Louis Busse branch.

August Decker, representing the Mrs. C. Henja branch.

Q. What names appear on the architecture of Memorial Hall in the Centennial building?

A. Those of 27 generals of Illinois: Grant, Logan, Prentiss, Hurlbut, Buford, Rowett, Smith, Hurlbut, Oglesby, Juchin, Shields, Farnsworth, Wallace, McClelland, Atkins, Corbin, Baker, Bissell, Henry, Hardin, Palmer, Rawlin, Wilson, Merritt, Grierson, Schofield and Pope.

Q. How many times was the proposal of calling a Constitutional Convention put between 1818 and 1848?

A. Three times. The proposal was put to the people in 1824 and 1842 and failed. Again in 1846 the people voted for a Constitutional Convention.

Q. When and where did the convention meet?

A. June 7, 1847 at Springfield.

Q. How many delegates were there and how were they divided politically?

A. 162. Ninety-two were democrats, the remainder whigs.

Q. Who were the presiding officers of the convention?

A. Newton Clontz, president; Henry W. Moore, secretary; and John A. Wilson, sergeant-at-arms.

Q. What impasse developed between two delegates in argument over a point in the convention?

A. Thompson Campbell and O. C. Pratt argued so violently that they finally agreed to arbitrate by duel. The police intervened and stopped the duel.

Q. What important elective rules were passed by the convention?

A. Provision was made for the election of supreme court justices as well as all the state officers.

Q. What provisions were made concerning divorce?

A. That divorces should be granted only for such causes as might be specified by general laws, and not by the legislature directly.

Q. What ruling was made with regard to lotteries?

A. No lotteries might be authorized for any purpose.
