

Miss Elizabeth A. Howland to Marry

Nelson Brewer Jr.

BARRINGTON HILLS.—Of interest to Barrington friends is the coming marriage of Miss Elizabeth Antoinette Howland and Nelson Charles Brewer Jr. of Beverly. The service will be read Saturday, the fourth of June, at half after eight o'clock in Bethany Union church, Chicago.

The reception following the ceremony will be at the Shoreland hotel, and the young couple will be at home after the first of August in their new home, 2024 Hopkins Place.

Luncheon-Bridge Friday

The party at Barrington Hills Country club Friday in the interest of the Child Welfare Center is attracting a large number of guests. Bridge-luncheon with a style show is the order of the afternoon, and the committee chairman, Mrs. Robert Buckley and Mrs. Harold Byron Smith are expecting that a large fund will be realized for this worthwhile charity which is a new venture as a Barrington Hills organization.

On Wednesday the regular meeting of the Barrington Infant Welfare Center was held at Mrs. Mark Kemper's cabin in the woods. It was an all-day meeting and luncheon was served by the hostess.

Start Ladies' Day Events

The opening day at Barrington Hills Country club for the season of Ladies' Day events was May 16. Golf tournaments, tennis matches and bridge games started their regular summer competitive rounds with Mrs. William Horne as chairman of athletic events and Mrs. Andrew Dallstream in charge of bridge.

Reported Improved Friends of Col. John Roberts, who is ill in the Hillside Memorial hospital in Chicago, will be glad to learn of his continued improvement, and that his condition is quite favorable.

Personals

The Alexander F. Reichmanns are anticipating a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Hurley and their small son during the early part of June. The Hurleys are from Dublin, Ireland, and expect to spend some time in Toronto after their visit here with Mrs. Hurley's grandmother, Mrs. Dent and her aunt, Mrs. Reichmann.

Robert Buckley Jr. celebrated his twenty-fourth birthday last Sunday. Guests of the occasion were his grandmother, Mrs. Etta Hodges of Highland Park, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Seyfarth of Deerfield and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buckley II.

Mrs. C. H. Canby left Wednesday for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Henry L. Parker in Detroit and another week in Boston.

Mrs. Frank C. Kirchman suggests the following menu for variety in your spring fare: Spanish pork chops, fresh asparagus salad, baking powder biscuits, coffee, lemon fluff and date macaroon.

For the salad, chill 1 lbs. bunch freshly cooked asparagus, arrange on beds of lettuce and garnish with strips of pimiento. Just before serving add French dressing.

SPANISH CHOPS

Lay pork chops in roaster. Season. Top with 1 tablespoon uncooked rice. Pour 1 can tomatoes over chops. Bake slowly 1 1/2 hrs. in moderate oven.

DATE MACAROONS

4 egg whites, 1/4 cups sugar, Beat 20 minutes.

Add 1 cup diced dates, 1 cup diced dates, 38 minutes.

LEMON PUFF

3 tablespoons butter, 1/4 cups sugar, Juice 1 1/2 lemons, 1/2 cups milk, 3 tablespoons flour, 8 eggs.

Cream sugar and butter. Add beaten egg yolks, flour, lemon juice and milk. Fold in whites. Set in pan of hot water. Bake in moderate oven about 45 minutes.

How will your roof STAND UP during the next severe storm?

Do you know the actual condition of the roof on your house? Will it "get by" a really severe storm, or will it "let you down"? Repairs to ceilings, walls and furnishings are costly.

Reliable statistics show that today five out of every ten houses need a new roof. If your house is one of the five, you are liable to expensive repair bills any day. Why take a chance?

LET US MAKE A FREE ROOF INSPECTION

We can tell you if your roof is safe or not. We are roofing specialists—certified by Barrett... "the greatest name in roofing." We will gladly make a careful examination of the condition of your roof and give you a detailed report. There's no charge or obligation for this service. Just call us on the phone or mail us a post card, telling us when we can come.
