

"Keep Smiling" Is Week-End Feature on Catlow Screen

"Marie Antoinette," Starring Norma Shearer, Opens Thursday

Several score of trucks of various kinds were needed for "Racketeers," coming to the Catlow on Saturday for one day only. Racketeers, conducting a campaign of terrorism, were to wreck, burn and blow up the trucks for the film.

It would have been a needless waste to buy new trucks and ruin them for the picture, so prop men rounded up the required number of decrepit trucks and painted them up to look new. The trucks were wrecked in awe-inspiring, thrill-charged scenes. Then the metal was salvaged from the wrecks and the remainder was consigned to the city dump.

Jane Withers' legion of fans will be given an extra treat in her new picture, "Keep Smiling," for the clever young star impersonates five screen personalities. They are: Joan Davis, Deanna Durbin, Bobbly Brown, George Arliss and Harry Ellis—one third of the mad Ritz Brothers.

"Keep Smiling," first in a new series of major productions for Jane, opens on Sunday at the Catlow theatre with a cast that includes Gloria Stuart, Henry Wilcoxon, Helen Westley, Ted Prouty, Douglas Fowley and Robert Allen. Dramatic Ellis Island—last portal of freedom—provides the background for the absorbing story which stars Don Ameche and Arleen Whelan in "Gateway," coming to the Catlow Tuesday.

Double featured with "Gateway" on Tuesday is the warm human drama—East of Park Avenue—"City Streets," starring Edith Fajlow and Leo Carrillo. Join the army and see the girl! That's the picture of a sailor's life, at least when the fleet's in, according to Paramount's new marine comedy, "Olive Me a Sailor," coming on Wednesday to the Catlow. With Bob Hope, Martha Raye, Betty Grable and Jack Whiting playing the leading roles, the picture tells a rollicking story of two sailors who pursue the same girl but change their minds when the girl's Cinderella sister turns out to be the winner of a national beauty contest.

"Speed to Burn," with Michael Whalen and Lynn Bari, a heart-warming human story, plays the double feature bill Wednesday with "Olive Me a Sailor."

Norma Shearer will have a surprise for her fans in "Marie Antoinette," which opens on Thursday at the Catlow. For the first time since "Smilin' Through," she appears on the screen as a blonde. Marie Antoinette had light hair with a reddish cast, described by her friends as "sunny," blue eyes and a fair complexion. It was Madame DuBarry who nicknamed her "Little Redhead." Miss Shearer is a blonde only in the opening scenes of the picture, as later she wears the white wig of the period which became the fashion in the France of Marie Antoinette's day.
