

Shirley Temple Is Star of Week-End Feature at Catlow

Young Trouper Here Sunday and Monday in "Little Miss Broadway"

Adding new laurels to their fame as topnotchers among Hollywood's ace song writers, the late Dick Whiting and Johnny Mercer wrote three hits for "Cowboy from Brooklyn," the new comedy with music which comes to the Catlow theatre Friday and Saturday.

The Whiting-Mercer team, has the interesting titles of "Ride, Tenderfoot, Ride," "I'll Dream Tonight," "I've Got a Heart Full of Music." Heading the cast are Pat O'Brien, Dick Powell and Priscilla Lane.

Darrel F. Zanuck, 10th Century-Fox production chief, has surrounded his Number One star, Shirley Temple, with a stellar cast in her new musical, "Little Miss Broadway," opening Sunday for two days at the Catlow. George Murphy, Phyllis Brooks, Edna Mae Oliver, George Barbier, Edward Ellis, Jess Darwell, El Brendel, Donald Meek, Patricia Wilder and Claude Gillingwater Sr. are included.

The warm response with which the movie-going public welcomed Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane as a new screen romantic team, has resulted in another co-starring picture for the two charming youngsters—"Men Are Such Fools," which comes Tuesday to the Catlow.

One the double feature bill Tuesday also is George O'Brien in "Painted Desert."

All the credit lavished on the film drama, "Always Goodbye," starring Barbara Blalock and Jack Herbert Marshall, should go to his five-year-old chief deputy assistant, declares Director Sidney Lanfield.

He is none other than winsome, blue-eyed little Johnnie Russell, the youngster who was whisked from obscurity to a key role in the drama featuring Ian Hunter, Cesar Romero, Lynn Bari and Blinn Barrie, and opening Wednesday at the Catlow.

Johnnie kept a critical eye on Director Lanfield, and echoed every one of the film veteran's commands to crew and cast. Lanfield was particularly grateful the little lad's keeping the entire company on the set all the time.

Violet Umberstock Weds T. Peden Jr. in Lovely Setting

LAKE ZURICH.—White tapers in candelabra, ferns and bouquets of white lilies and blue delphinium about the altar of the St. Peter Evangelical church formed the setting for the wedding ceremony of Miss Violet Lydia Umberstock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Umberstock of Gilmers, and Thomas D. Peden Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peden of Country Side lake. The service was read by the Rev. Benjamin Freese at seven o'clock Saturday, Sept. 10. The Lutheran wedding march played by Miss Anna Berghorn preceded the service and the Mendelssohn march was the recession.

at for the bride party. Miss Ethel Rudinski and Mrs. E. A. Irion sang the well-known, "I Love You Truly," and "Oh, Promise Me."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the single ring ceremony was used.

Miss Umberstock was attired in white marquisette with a finger tip veil which fell from a cap trimmed with orange blossoms. Her shoes were of white tulle and white of the valley.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Arthur Kruckenberg, twin-sister of the bride, wore a dress of blue tulle and carried tallman roses. Her daughter, Jean, in yellow tulle, served as flower girl.

Edward McCula attended the groom as best man, and Arthur Kruckenberg, Arthur Kruckenberg, Ernest Umberstock and Wesley Gratz served as ushers.

Following the wedding service a reception for two hundred guests was held at the St. Peter Evangelical parish hall with the Ladies' Aid serving a bridal dinner. Toastmaster W. Gilson announced vocal numbers by Mrs. Thomas Peden Sr. and Mrs. S. Crebbe and readings by Miss Esther Schwerman between courses.

The young couple left Sunday on the Burlington Express for Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Peden's going away costume was of navy tulle with British tan accessories. They will be at home after Sept. 24th at the home of the groom's parents at Countryside.

Mrs. Peden is the owner of the Glimmer Feed and Fuel company and the bride is a graduate of Elia township high school.

SEE WHAT LIGHT, TENDER CAKES SPRY GIVES IN HALF THE MIXING TIME. TRY THIS RECIPE

OLD FASHIONED CHOCOLATE LAYER CAKE

Combine Spry, salt and vanilla. Add sugar gradually and cream until light and fluffy. Do quickly done with smooth, creamer Spry! Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition.

Sift flour and baking powder together 3 times. Add small amounts of flour to creamed mixture, alternating with milk, beating after each addition until smooth. Pour batter into two 8-inch layer pans greased with Spry. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 F.) 25 minutes. Remove Chocolate Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake.

CHOCOLATE FROSTING

Melt Spry, butter and chocolate together over hot water. Pour hot milk over sugar and stir until sugar dissolved. Add to mix and beat. Add chocolate mixture and beat until smooth and thick enough to spread. Makes enough to cover tops and sides of two 8-inch layers. (All measurements in this recipe are in 1/2 lb., 1 lb., cans. Also in the big 6-lb. family size.) (Mix and save this Spry recipe.)
