

November 1944 Letter from Lily, Ed's mother

Mundelein, Ill
Nov. 14. 1944.
12.20

Dear Son:

While waiting for the gang to come into lunch, thought I'd at least start a letter to you.

Received a Christmas
greeting card yesterday from Jim Gene, was rather surprised, thought he had forgotten all about us.

Mr. Jerome isn't so well, he should be in bed
but he won't go. Eunice is up from Texas staying with him at present.

Mrs. Ransom told me
this, while I was visiting Mrs. Henry Kane, she too is in bed, her heart trouble.

Did I tell you that I went up to Lake Geneva with the P. V. Lucille and Dune is pretty up there, altho it rained all

3
Pop and Len our still picking corn on the contour. Were we on the " when you were home, I think we had just started it. Right?

Why don't you soldier
Bojo go on a strike?

There have been three since election, and the army is supposed to take over. Communism.

That's what we're getting. Did you know it?

Sure is a nice warm
day. All the flies have come to life again.

Dwayne has been deferred until April.

You should ~~have~~<sup>have</sup> seen some of the crazy things that go on. Perfectly idiotic you wonder and wonder, wonder.

So long

loads of love

Mom
