

Bridal Shower At Thies Home

The Barrington home of Irma Thies and Norma Thies was the scene of a prenuptial shower for a prospective bride couple Ruth Wikman and Melvin J. Wikman of Arlington Heights.

Some 34 guests were entertained at the party which was held last evening. The couple will be married Saturday afternoon at the St. Peter Lutheran church in Arlington Heights.

Harnden-Fisher Wedding Saturday; Church Ceremony

Miss Barbara J. Harnden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harnden of Mount Prospect, formerly of Barrington, became the bride of Melvin H. Fisher, son of J. Fisher of Logansport, Indiana, at a ceremony Saturday afternoon at the Barrington Methodist church.

Mrs. Lawrence T. York officiated at the ceremony. The bride wore a white gown and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

The Rev. C. J. Doeneck officiated at the ceremony. The bride wore a white gown and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a white gown and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

Attending the couple were college friends. Miss Bettyson, who wore a blue gown, carried a shaded rose bouquet. The maid of honor and Edvardson was the best man. and Charles Welty of Barrington was the best man.

The reception immediately followed the ceremony and was held in the beautifully decorated parlors. A five-tiered cake, a silver service was served. The bride's mother, white flowers and graced the serving table.

Seven friends of the bride assisted in serving the refreshments. They were Miss Corrine, Miss Grismer, Miss Kamphenkel, Miss Joselynson, Miss Perrine Pingle of Barrington Heights and Miss Cam and Miss Joan Gieske of Barrington.

The newlyweds will enter their senior year at the University of Illinois in the fall. The bride is majoring in sociology and the groom in civil engineering. They spent four years with the corps.

As they left on their honeymoon trip to Kentucky, the bride was dressed in a white suit with accessories.

St. Paul Women Observe Birthdays

At tables decorated in the colors of the seasons, the members of the Woman's Society of St. Paul Evangelical church will be celebrating their birthdays Thursday afternoon during their regular meeting in the church.

A dessert luncheon will be served by the following hostesses at the "winter" luncheon: Mrs. Arnold Sass, Jahnholz Jr. and Mrs. M. Spring—Mrs. August R. Gene Becker, Mrs. D. Sommer—Mrs. Emil No. F. Wichman Sr., Mrs. maker; fall—Mrs. Herm. Mrs. Walter Baumann Howard Brintlinger.

Melodie Lee Gay Baptized Sunday

During the Sunday service at the St. Paul Evangelical church Melodie Lee Gay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gay, received the sacrament. The Rev. George officiated and Mrs. M. of Rand road, aunt of Melodie, acted as sponsors.

Later the Gays entertained relatives at a buffet luncheon at their home on routes 22 and 23, street, the maternal grandparents were among those present.

Society » C

By IRENE HANS, Society Editor
Telephone Barrington 909

Luncheon of Year For Methodist Society Held Today

At 1:00 o'clock this Thursday members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will gather at the church parlors for the luncheon of the year and a short business session.

The group will be assembled at four long tables appropriately appointed to represent the four seasons, and members will find their places at the table whose decorations contain their birthday month.

Mrs. Lyle Barnum, president of the organization, will preside and Mrs. Carolyn de Windt Gardner is the chairman of the luncheon program.

Mrs. Q. R. Paulson heads the committee of the "winter" table where the January, February and March birthdays will be honored. Assisting are Mrs. Sandfort Rieke, Mrs. George Johnson and Mrs. Ward Olmsted.

The leading hostess at the "spring" table is Mrs. Harry Weese and her helpers are Mrs. Harry Goebel, Mrs. J. H. DeBolt, Mrs. Earl Schwemm and Mrs. Melvin Sinnott.

In charge of the "summer" table is Mrs. Elmer Kingery, with Mrs. Tom Robinson, Mrs. Ollie Hilbun and Mrs. Darrell Sanders.

The table representing the autumn months is being arranged by Mrs. Roy Pierce, whose assistants are Mrs. Howard Wagner, Mrs. Allen Hunt and Mrs. Clifford Presnall.

Mrs. Barnum, Mrs. George Todd and Mrs. Earle Thurston will be the hostesses at the buffet table.

During the business period the two-year circle "mix up" will take place, changing the membership of the four groups.

A delightful close of the afternoon will be a program of poetry presented by Mrs. Blair Plimpton.

With this meeting the society will recess until September, the committee announces.

Village Gardeners To Discuss Roses At Monday Meeting

"A Month of Roses" is the program topic for this month's meeting of the Village Garden club which will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday, June 9, at the home of Mrs. Earle Thurston of 709 Sycamore road in Jewel Park.

Mrs. J. M. Friedlander will lead the panel discussion which will be the feature of the afternoon. Mrs. Harold G. Homuth will be the associate hostess.

Baptist Youths Are Installed

At a formal candlelight service Sunday evening the newly elected officers of the Baptist Youth Fellowship were installed. The ceremony took place in the church sanctuary and those seated were Robert Thomas, president; Derry Cochran, vice president, and Nancy Weber, secretary and treasurer.

The retiring staff consists of Harold Hart, William Ahrens and Fred Wittekind.

With this meeting, the group which is sponsored by the pastor, the Rev. Paul Starring and Mrs. Starring, disbanded for the summer months.

Grandmother's Home Is Wedding Setting

The whirl of prenuptial parties for Miss Verdelle Wollar, daughter of Joseph Wollar of Walton street, and Edwin Bills will culminate in marriage Wednesday, June 11. The ceremony will be read at 7:00 in the evening at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Nightingale of 435 East Main street.

Fourth in a series of showers was a party given last Wednesday night by Mrs. Floyd Lohman and Mrs. Jack Wheelock at the home of the former's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Berghorn, South Hough street.

The 12 guests, who were entertained by airplane bunco, were co-workers of the honor guest at the First National Bank.

Palmers At Bowling Po

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer of North Cook street were guests of a bowling party at the Old Cellar on Wednesday evening. The party was composed of persons and their families.

Nuptials R For William And Ethel

Miss Ethel S. Palmer and Mr. William J. Jurs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jurs of Barrington, at an ceremony at the Des Plaines Lutheran church.

Before the bride was placed by her father at the altar by her father. The bride was wearing a pink gown and carried a bouquet of white gardenias.

Miss Mildred, the bride, was wearing a pink gown and carried a bouquet of white gardenias. The groom was wearing a tuxedo and carried a sword.

Charles Hase, friend of the bride, was the best man, and the bride's brother, was the ring bearer.

After the ceremony the bride and groom remained at a home. Dancing was enjoyed by the guests.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their families to the home.