WSCS THANK OFFERING SPEAKER

— Mrs. Peter Kittel —

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Henry Ward Beecher said, "Women are a new race, recreated since the world received Christianity." How true this is, and how magnificently the women of our church give evidence of their appreciation of the meaning of Christianity to them as they work through the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Taking his thought from Good Friday and Easter experiences, E.S. Barrett reminds us that "Woman (was) last at the cross, and earliest at the grave." We see this characteristic of faithfulness manifested in a multitude of ways — deep concern being ever the watchword of our women. It is through service that our ladies give real expression to their faith, and by which they challenge our whole church to a deeper dedication of self, substance, and service.

It seems to me that the ladies, as they express themselves through the program of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and other Church activities, are demonstrating how real their religion is. They know the truth of that expressed by Heinrich Heine when he wrote, "Pretty women without religion are like flowers without perfume." One acquainted with those of the WSCS is quick to ascertain that our "flowers are very fragrant."

 the kingdom of God.
 People: Thanks be to thee, O Christ, for thy holy promise.

 Praise to the Lord the Almighty, the King of creation. O my soul praise Him for He is thy health and salvation. All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near, join me in glad adoration. Praise thou the Lord, who with marvelous wisdom hath made thee. Decked thee with health and with loving hand guided and stayed thee. How oft in grief hath not He brought thee relief, spreading His wings to o'er shade thee. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him. All that hath life and breath come now with praises before Him. Let the Amen sound from His people again. Gladly we adore Him. Amen.

THIS IS THY HOUSE

This is Thy house, O Lord
I hear Thy Holy Word
Pervade the silence.

Deep within, not uttered by
Mere vocal voice, I give reply
Though I keep silent.

I cannot speak, nor would I speak;
Instead, Thy quietude I seek.
My soul needs rest.

Here, within these walls I find
A firmer faith, a peace of mind.
My soul is blessed.

Grant me, Lord, this sacred hour,
The healing touch of Thy great power
That I may serve Thee well,

That I may go my way today,
Grateful for this place to pray,
The house where Thou dost dwell.

Amen.

OPEN-CHURCH

Suggestions...

Ten Open - Church Suggestions

1. Read your Bible everyday. It is a good habit.
2. Pray every morning and night, asking that God's purposes may be fulfilled for the world, for the church, for others, and for yourself, — taking time to listen for God's guidance.
3. Worship in Church every Sunday. When traveling or on week-end trips, this may mean attending an unfamiliar service. Neither work nor play is a valid excuse for omission of Sunday worship. Establish the habit of entering the church edifice during the week for private meditation. It is an excellent supplement to Sunday worship.
4. Receive Communion regularly. Prepare with humble self-examination, and try to make a special thanksgiving and resolution.
5. Work for something higher than pay, or profit, no matter how humble or exalted your occupation. Rely upon personal fitness and integrity, in cooperation with others, rather than upon chance or unfair advantage.

6. Play fairly and cleanly, for the benefit of all concerned, and without detriment to society or harm to any opponent. Let fun recreate your spirit and widen your friendships.

7. Volunteer for service in your parish, and study to do effectively what you undertake. Whenever you move ask your minister for a letter of introduction or of transfer, that your habit of active participation in church life be not broken.

8. Invite to Church those whom you recognize as having no church home. Watch for needs which the Church can meet.

9. Share your income systematically with your parish and with the worldwide program of your church. Study also and encourage the life and work of other communions, especially those moving toward Church Unity.

10. Practice good citizenship, working with neighbors of every race and of all faiths or of none, for the common welfare, for the oppressed and for the coming world federation of all the peoples upon earth. Be courageous to oppose evil, but always in faith and love.
