

Society

IRENE

Methodist's Set Rummage Sale for April 14, 15

Arrangements are in full swing for the spring rummage sale that the women of the Barrington Methodist church are sponsoring April 14 and 15 in the Lower Lounge and Assembly area of the church on South Hough street.

Chairmen and their committees are busy sorting and pricing rummage and lining up baked goods and gift items which they promise for exciting shopping for the public.

General chairman of this major fund-raising event is Mrs. John Jackson, with Mrs. Harold Brown as her co-chairman. Mrs. Dayton Nance and Mrs. Howard Findley are handling publicity.

Department chairmen for the project are:

Mrs. William Sinclair and Mrs. William Braithwaite, recruiting new members of the church to assist with the sale.

Circle representatives heading committees: Mrs. L. R. Barnum of Circle "A", gifts; Mrs. William Pape of Circle "B", housewares; Mrs. Carl Apelt of Circle "C", men's clothes; Mrs. Henry Hoffman of Circle "D", bake sale; Mrs. Fred Lippert of Circle "E", specialty shop; Mrs. Brad Shinkle of Circle "F", children's clothing; Mrs. Robert Grant of Circle "G", women's clothing.

Mrs. Raymond Carne, furniture; Mrs. Edwin Troutt and Mrs. James Jantz, toys; Mrs. Neil Werhan and Mrs. Quentin Paulson, books and records; Mrs. Hans Dernehl, rolls and coffee.

Rummage pick-up chairmen are Mrs. Elmer Hill and Mrs. Lowell Hill, whose respective phone numbers are DUNKirk 1-297 and DUNKirk 1-5159.

Proceeds from this semi-annual endeavor go to the support of such projects as Peek House in Polo, Marcy Center and Newberry Settlement House in Chicago, schools, hospitals and work with Indian and Spanish Americans in the United States. Foreign missions are also advanced by these monies.

'SPECIALTY SHOP' AT RUMMAGE SALE

The Barrington Methodist church rummage sale this Friday and Saturday will feature "Specialty Shop" items, baked goods and gifts as well as rummage.

Selected for Specialty tables are better clothes for men, women and children. The furniture department has a sofa-bed, overstuffed chairs, porch furniture and an antique bed. Books and records are arranged so that browsers may look at them leisurely away from the bustle of the general sale, said Mrs. John M. Jackson, chairman.

Coffee and rolls will be served in the Upper Lounge where the bake sale will be held.

Sale hours for Friday are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 6:30 and 8:30 in the evening and Saturday the sale will be on from 9 to noon.

Methodist WSCS Postpones Joint Meeting to May 5

There will be no regular meeting in April for the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Barrington Methodist church, for the joint dinner session with the Men's Brotherhood which was scheduled for Friday, April 7, has been postponed.

The new date is set for Friday, May 5, in the church's new dining room, according to Mrs. James Shaver, president.

An old-fashioned potluck supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock and stories and movies of the by-gone days in the 140-year history of the church will make up the evening's entertainment.

Members of the church are reminded to mark the date on the calendar and watch for future announcements. In the meantime, the committee is looking for old pictures and anything of interest in the church's history. Anyone having contributions to make in this area should phone Mrs. Fred Welsh, DUNKirk 1-5251.

Thursday, January 19, 1961

Church Women Plan World Prayer Day

Plans are in progress for the annual World Day of Prayer service that the United Church Women of the Barrington Area are sponsoring at Salem Evangelical United Brethren church on February 17 at 1:30 p.m.

Details were discussed at a committee meeting that Mrs. Grant V. Graver, chairman of the Prayer Day, held Monday at her West Lincoln avenue home.

The world wide prayer observance is traditionally held the first Friday of Lent, and this year marks the 75th anniversary of the practice to promote world brotherhood.

Miss Esther Davis, friendliness missionary of the Chicago Baptist association, will be the featured speaker at the Barrington service and special music will be supplied by "The Octones," a girls' ensemble from Barrington High school.

The World Day of Prayer committee assisting Mrs. Graver with the arrangements includes Mrs. Alex Sweeney, president of the local United Church Women; Mrs. Becher Hungerford, Mrs. George Adkins, Mrs. J. L. Butler, Mrs. Richard Faulkner, Mrs. P. R. Drover, Mrs. Elmer Shaw, Mrs. Donald Brownell, Mrs. Fred Biek of Barrington and Mrs. Arthur Braun of Cary.

The board of the United Church Women of the Barrington Area met Tuesday at the Methodist church to chart the programs for 1961 which start off with the prayer day.

This Wednesday Mrs. Sweeney went to Chicago to participate in a regional prayer fellowship program at the McCormick Y.W.C.A. She was one of 50 women honored with invitations to attend the event which was a preliminary to the February 17 observance.

Barrington Methodist Women Install New Officers, Chairmen

H COURIER REVIEW

Section 2—Page One

United Church Women Observe May Fellowship Day Friday

At a luncheon meeting Thursday, June 1, the newly elected officers of the Barrington Methodist church Woman's Society of Christian Service were installed for the 1961-62 season.

Mrs. Fred Welsh was seated as president; Mrs. Peter Barile, 1st vice-president; Mrs. John Bell, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. L. E. Butzman, assistant vice-president; Mrs. Jack L. Rieke, recording secretary; Mrs. Verne Alden, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold D. Parsley, treasurer, and Mrs. James Shaver, the out-going president, is the advisor.

The following divisional secretaries have been appointed and installed: Mrs. H. J. Dernehl, promotion; Mrs. Donald Nygren and Mrs. Carl Mettling, missionary education; Mrs. Daryl Frey, Christian social relations; Mrs. Robert Schaller, student work; Mrs. Harold Gerhardt, youth work; Mrs. Fred Leeson, children's work; Mrs. Warren Fellingham, spiritual life; Mrs. William Dotterrer, literature and publications; Mrs. Percy Drover, supply work.

Appointed to serve as committee chairmen are Mrs. Charles F. Rhodes, friendship committee; Mrs. John Putta, housekeeping;

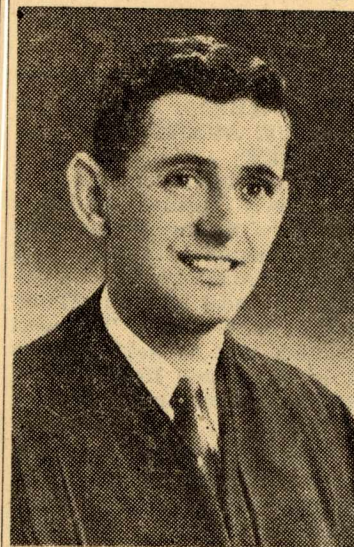

Mrs. Quentin Paulson, library; Mrs. Harry Honeycutt and Mrs. John Jackson, rummage sales; Mrs. Bruce Corbett, hostess; Mrs. F. B. Callanen, membership; Mrs. John Rockwood, parsonage; Mrs. Earl Johnson, publicity; Mrs. Corliss Anderson, thank offering; Mrs. J. W. Braithwaite, nominating.

Editor of the "Jottings" is Mrs. Daryl Frey and Mrs. Arthur Welty is the historian.

Named as circle chairmen for the coming year are Mrs. Darrell Sanders, Miss Dorothy Brown, Mrs. Ralph Heiden, Mrs. Robert Grant and Mrs. Truman Chiles.

Representatives for church related agencies are: Mrs. Paul L. Prickett, Goodwill Industries; Mrs. Harold L. Brown, Lake Bluff Children's Home; Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, Marcy Center; Mrs. Robert J. Long, Newberry Avenue Center; Mrs. Walter Schnetlagge and Mrs. Ward Olmsted, Elgin State hospital, and Mrs. S. L. Fisher, United Church Women of the Barrington Area.

With organization completed, the society will vacation during July and August and resume activities in September when the new season will be launched officially.

REV. HARRY CONNER

Table centerpieces of spring flowers will accent the May Fellowship Day Luncheon program that the United Church Women of the Barrington Area are observing Friday, May 4, at Barrington Salem Evangelical United Brethren church, W. Lincoln avenue.

The Rev. Harry W. Conner, pastor of Chicago's St. James Methodist church, will be the featured speaker. His message is entitled "One Family Under God."

He will speak following the luncheon which will be served at 12:15 o'clock by a committee of Salem women under the direction of Mrs. B. W. Condill. Mrs. Leslie Bauman, also of Salem, is in charge of tickets.

The Rev. Grant V. Graver, pastor of the host church, will give the invocation. Mrs. Howard R. Brintlinger of St. Paul United Church of Christ and president of the United organization, will extend the welcome. Mrs. Lloyd McClow of Community Baptist church, will explain the origin and purpose of May Fellowship Day that is marked by church women throughout the nation.

Mrs. Lester Butzman of Barrington Methodist church will be in charge of the roll call and will introduce the speaker.

Special Music

Music for the occasion will feature Mrs. Walter Stroh of Salem church as the vocal soloist with Mrs. George A. Adkins of St. Mark's Episco-byterian church. Mrs. James Thomas of Community Baptist is in charge of the ushering duties.

Other churches participating in the event are Fox River Grove Community Methodist church and Cary Methodist church.

The benediction will be pronounced by the Rev. Gehl Devore, pastor of Barrington Methodist church.

At his present charge since April 1, the Rev. Mr. Conner had been serving Normal Park Methodist church, 7128 S. Emerald avenue, Chicago, since 1957.

St. James church, 4611 Ellis avenue, was known during earlier years as the "Cathedral of Methodism." The large Gothic-style edifice became interracial in 1954 and is now predominantly Negro.

Now 38 years old, the Rev. Mr. Conner was a copy boy and police reporter before he became a minister ten years ago. He began his career as a copy boy for City News Bureau in 1941 and was a police reporter for more than a year, assigned to the Central Police Building until he was inducted into the Army in 1943. He was in service for four years.

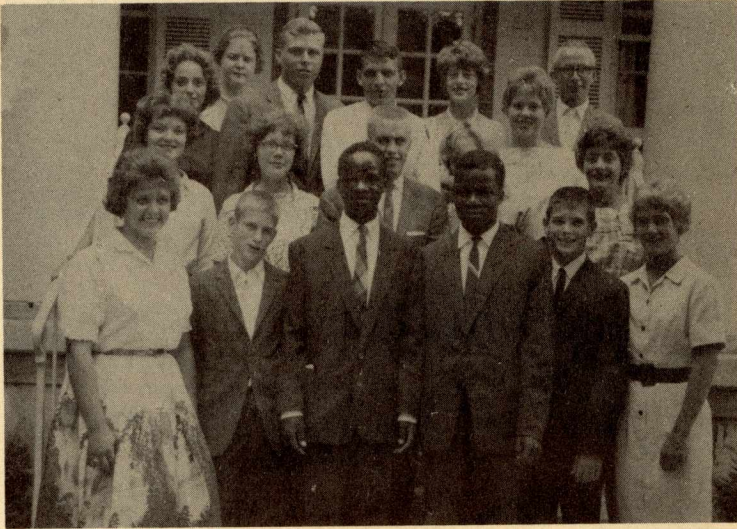

The Rev. Mr. Conner attended Roosevelt university for two years and was graduated in 1950 from Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia., with a degree in philosophy. He received a bachelor of divinity degree from Garrett Theological seminary in 1954.

The guest speaker will tell firsthand experiences of interracial work in Chicago, being actively engaged in the programs and organizations which are aimed at meeting the challenge of the problems involved with changing neighborhoods. The Rev. Mr. Conner is married and he and his wife have three sons, who range in age from 3 to 7.

OCTOBER, 1961

New College Home . . .

Two young Africans will live in Barrington while studying in this country. They are shown here with the Barrington M.Y.F.

— Drapers

Continued from Page 1

and lives with his son and family.

Rev. Charles H. Draper served in the New England Southern and Maine Conferences before transferring to Rock River Conference in 1926. He was appointed associate minister at Wesley Church, Aurora, this year and heads the roll of "effective" members of the Rock River Conference with his fifty years of service.

Dr. Birger Dahl was master of ceremonies at the reception for the Drapers, and two hymns written by Rev. George Draper were sung.

— To Study

Continued from Page 1

representation in the united church; Bishop Charles W. Bra-shares, comparative church poli-

Barrington Launches Missions Project

The Barrington Church commission on Christian social concerns, cooperating with the Experiment in International Living in Chicago, has sponsored two African students who will be in college on four-year government scholarships.

Thomas Echewa, 22, from Nigeria, will study bio-chemistry and will stay with the William Braithwaite family and Rev. and Mrs. Carl Mettling.

Callisto Madavo, 19, from Southern Rhodesia, will study liberal arts, plans on becoming a teacher, and will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Frey.

The young men were guests of Barrington MYF Aug 27.

Roscoe Church Observes Its 125th

The Roscoe church will ob-

The Big Red Barn
been the Mt. Hope Pistakee Highlands
was closed last mon
church moved into its ing which will even
come the church par

Closed . . .

A $50,000 unit has
ed to the Minooka
provide classroom at space. Rev. William pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. Robe
er of Lake Bluff jo
Rev. and Mrs. Robert of Madison, Wis., to Teen Overseas Proje
countries for 63 days
ean travel this summe
The tour involved s
hostels and castles, do
as well as the usual
and visiting of famou

Crookers Direct European Tour

Ground was broken
for the first church
Aldersgate Church,
with Rev. R. Merrill I
guest pastor.
The church is being
Naperville and Summ
Wheaton.
Members have $15,000, had nearly hand, but were able $35,000 on the str
$10,000 from Church
in order to start wor
$47,000 structure. H
Hiestand is pastor.

BARRINGTON AREA MAY FELLOWSHIP DAY

The Rev. Dr. Mahlon W. Pomeroy spelled out the responsibility of the church in matters of national concern when he addressed the United Church Women of the Barrington Area at the May Fellowship Day observance which was held at Wauconda Federated church of which he is the pastor.

Pictured at the speaker's table (left to right) are Mrs. Mahlon W. Pomeroy, wife of the pastor; Mrs. Matthew Broughton, president of the Fellowship of Christian Women of Federated church; Mrs. Stanley Young, also of Federated church, May Fellowship Day chairman; Dr. Pomeroy; Mrs. Alex Sweeney of Barrington Methodist church, president of the United Church Women; Mrs. Charles Rhodes of Barrington Methodist; Mrs. Edward Pegelow of Barrington Community Baptist church, publicity chairman.

Theme of the program for the day was "The Church Free and Responsible." Following Dr. Pomeroy's talk, a vocal solo by Mrs. George Watkins of the host congregation was enjoyed. Accompanied by another parishioner, Mrs. Donald Meyer, she sang "Green Pastures" by Wilfred Sanderson.

The luncheon event drew some 204 women, the largest attendance on record for a United May Fellowship gathering. Participants were present from cooperating churches in Barrington, Fox River Grove and Wauconda. The offering received amounted to $108.85, one-third of which goes into the local organization's treasury and the rest is contributed to the state fund.

Others on the committee in charge of arrangements included Mrs. Edward Buehlman of Barrington St. Mark's Episcopal church; Mrs. Leslie Bauman of Barrington Salem Evangelical United Brethren; Mrs. Donald Brownell of Barrington St. Michael's Episcopal; Mrs. John Stivers of Barrington Presbyterian; Mrs. Delbert A. Naggatz of Barrington St. Paul United Church of Christ, and Mrs. Paul Loch of Cary Methodist church.