

Circle G met January 21 at the home of Mrs John Rockwood. 13 members and one guest were present including Mrs Grant and Mrs Hanson who have joined us from another circle. Mrs Schreiner, our new leader, who transferred from Circle F, presided.

A note from Red Ackley thanking us for our gift was read.

The treasury showed a balance of $37.48 which shows a considerable way to go before we can fulfill our gift to WSCS.

Mrs Schreiner asked Mrs Woodsome to report on WSCS board meeting. Assignment of specific projects to individual circles to ensure full support was announced. Circles D, E, and G, will be responsible for Lake Bluff Home. All circles will share in respect to Elgin State Hospital and any other WSCS efforts. Mrs Rockwood announced the third Tues. in September as the date of Lake Bluff bazaar but mentioned the possibility of its being placed a week later than that date.

Program chairman, Mrs Robinson, asked for suggestions about later meetings. A suggestion was made that we have a case worker from Lake Bluff to talk to us. We would ask Circles D and E as guests.

Mrs Morrey will be hostess for the Feb. meeting and Mrs Woodsome co-hostess.

Mrs Morrey then gave the devotions, the interesting story of Sophie Wright who opened the first night school in New Orleans.

Mrs Rockwood, president of Lake Bluff Woman's Board told in detail of the work and facilities of the home. We again will be in charge of the Christmas booth at their bazaar. Mrs Brown showed items we might make and accepted suggestions from the membership.

Meeting then adjourned.

Helen Gelzer, Secretary pro tem

Circle G met at the home of Mrs Harold Brown on February 10. 1960.

Mrs Schreiner reminded members of our Thank Offering gift to be made February 28.

Our treasurer would be happy to receive pledges promptly.

Our next meeting will be March 17 with Circles D and E. A case worker from the Lake Bluff Orphanage has agreed to discuss her work and we hope for a good attendance. Mrs Corbett will be hostess and Mrs Mettling co-hostess. An announcement ~~was~~ of nursery facilities during our meetings is to be placed in the church bulletin.

Mrs Hanson volunteered to call absent members before the next meeting.

Mrs Corbett, our spiritual life chairman, announced the Wednesday Study course on Luke. One more meeting of this course remains. She also reported on her own committee group, with an explanation of the Crusade Scholar program, supported by our thank offering.

World Day of Prayer is March 4, and will be held at St Paul's church at 1 p.m. A sheet of prayers was distributed to help us prepare for that day.

The meeting ~~was~~ was completed by hand work for the Lake Bluff bazaar.

Helen Gelzer, Secretary pro tem

Circle G met on March 17 1960 at the home of Mrs. Bruce Corbett, with Mrs. Grant acting as co-hostess. Members from other circles of the church were present as guests of Circle G.

Mrs. Rockwood acted as chairman in the absence of Mrs. Schreiner.

Announcements were made in regard to the next WSCS general meeting, the house-cleaning of the church kitchen, the rummage sale, etc. by Dorothy Barnes. Members were requested to pay their pledges as soon as possible inasmuch as the WSCS books are closed as of April 30. Members were requested to donate trading stamps to be used to acquire some needed kitchen equipment.

Pat Rockwood, Gladys Dickelman, Alice Haneycutt, and Dorothy Barnes volunteered to help clean up the church kitchen.

Devotions were given by Evelyn Grant which were most appropriate the subject of our meeting.

~~Miss~~ Mrs. Rockwood introduced our speaker, Miss Phyllis Cozan, head case worker of the Lake Bluff Orphanage, who gave us an excellent talk on the program and problems of the orphanage, and then answered questions.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs Grace Schmidt.

There being no further business, meeting adjourned.

Dorothy Barnes, Secretary

Circle G met at the home of Grace Schmidt April 21 1960 with twelve members present. Ann Black assisted Mrs Schmidt as hostess.

President Schreiner said that it was the custom in other circles for all officers to serve for two years and we should think about whether we wish to follow this custom. Mrs Barnes asked to be replaced as secretary as she has already served in this capacity for two years.

There was discussion as to whether we should have a telephone committee; whether all meetings should be held at the church; and whether or not there should be some program for learning of illness or trouble among circle members. It was agreed to hold all except some special meetings, such as Christmas, at the church.

It was suggested that some remembrance be sent to Dorothy Woodsome who is leaving Barrington. Mrs Schreiner will send a card from our circle.

We were asked if all had paid their pledges, and reminded of the coming rummage sale and asked to help with it and the bake sale.

The next meeting will be held May 19th at the home of Betty Morrey at 11 a.m.

Devotions were led by Betty Corbett, and after discussion the meeting adjourned.

Dorothy Barnes, Secretary

Circle G met on May 19 1960 at the home of Betty Morrey with thirteen members present.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved. The treasurer said that $147 had been pledged to WSCS.

The following appointments were made by the chairman:

Program Committee: Evelyn Grant and Betty Morrey;
Secretary: Pat Rockwood
Hospitality Chairman: Dillis Braithwaite
Devotions Chairman: Helen Stiehl

Devotions were given by Chairman Barbara Schreiner.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to ~~work~~
~~on~~ hand work on items which our Circle is making for the Lake Bluff Orphanage bazaar.

Dorothy Barnes, Secretary

Circle G met in the church lounge on September 15, 1960 with 23 members present.

Since this was our first meeting for the fall, and there were several new members present, our chairman, Barbara Schreiner, gave a short talk on the purpose and activities of the Society and of our Circle. She thanked the women who had helped at the W.S.C.S. luncheon and reported that through their efforts, our treasury was $32.50 richer.

The following items were discussed and decided on:

Grace Schimdt announced that she had pledge envelopes prepared for the membership and would pass them out from time to time. No set amount was indicated for the individual pledge.

It was decided to use the Sunshine Fund for the payment of the baby sitter, and any money received over and beyond that amount would be used for cards and flowers.

Dyllis Braithewaite volunteered to be in charge of telephoning our members each month to remind them of the meetings

The fall rummage sale will be held on October 28th and 29th. Our circle has been assigned the Specialty Shop. Grace Schimdt volunteered to be on the rummage sale committee.

Betty Corbett requested a member from each circle to serve on the Kitchen Committee and Esther Kaiser volunteered to represent Circle G.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Helen Stiehl presented the devotions. We were reminded that it is far more important to concern ourselves with the spiritual side of our church than with the physical make-up.

Bette Morrey read an article on the sad plight of the 800 yr. old Church of the Holy Sepulcher. With so much dissension between the different religious faiths, no progress can be made towards its restoration.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned and the members spent the balance of the morning working on articles for the Lake Bluff Festival to be held on Sept. 30th.

Respectfully submitted,

Pat Rockwood, Secretary

Circle G met in the church lounge on October 20, 1960 with 17 members present. The minutes were read and approved. It was mentioned that our circle was to be in charge of Women's Clothing at the Rummage Sale instead of the Specialty Shop. Joan Luttrell will head up our group. Donations were requested for the Bake Sale.

It was announced that Mrs. Corliss Anderson would speak about her trip to Europe at the November meeting and would show some slides. On January 9th, we will have a combined meeting with Circle E and Miss Sheels will talk about her trip to the far and near east. Barbara Schreiner mentioned that she had heard a very fine tape recording concerning the apathy of the Korean War prisoners by Dr. Wm. Mayer. She suggested this as a possibility of a future program.

Certain items of the Jottings were stressed, and Helen Gelzer urged all members to vote yes for the bond issues in the Nov. election.

The results of Harvest Home and Tag Day were jubilantly announced. Harvest Home brought in the grand total of $5117.21 which is $2000. more than was realized last year. Tag Day did about $500. better than ever before or $2545.49.

After the business meeting, we proceeded with the program. Helen Gelzer presented the devotions which were entitled " Our Heritage " and her theme was taken from the 16th Psalm. Evelyn Grant and Bette Morrey were in charge of the program which carried out the same theme. Puzzle maps with the names of well-known figures of our Christian Heritage were distributed and worked on This proved to be highly illuminating to most circle members.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Pat Rockwood, Sec.

Circle G met in the church lounge on November 17, 1960 with 20 members present. The minutes were read and approved. Barbara Schreiner had the sad news to report that Mr. Todd was very seriously ill at Sherman Hospital and Pat Rockwood was asked to send him a card from our circle.

The rummage sale was very successful this year. It was mentioned that it would most helpful for the spring sale if everyone would press the garments before bringing them in to be sold.

Cookies were asked for the Dedication and Open House at the church on the 27th. We were also reminded to bring our gifts for Elgin State Hospital by the 1st of December.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, the devotions were given by Dorothy Barnes and were entitled "How to Live Your Life More Radiantly". Catherine Anderson then showed some lovely slides of Europe which she and Mr. Anderson had taken last summer.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

The Christmas meeting of Circle G was held at the home of Pat Rockwood on Dec. 15. There were 17 members present. Barbara Schreiner called the meeting to order and following the opening prayer and the ~~the~~ reading of the minutes, Grace Schmidt gave the Treasurer's report. We now have $83.59 in our treasury and Grace reminded us that all pledges should be in by April 1st.

Barbara mentioned that she had sent a plant to Catherine Anderson by way of thanking her for the interesting program she given us in Nov. It was suggested and approved that we give the amount in our Sunshine Fund to the Todd's or whomever Rev. Mettling suggests for our Christmas giving.

Our next meeting is to be a joint meeting with Circle E to be held at Alice Nance's on Jan. 9 at 8:00 P.M. The following volunteered to be on the refreshment committee: Betty Dawson, Vivian Stutzman, Grace Schmidt and Gladys Dickelman. The program will be the showing of ~~the~~ slides which Miss Sheel took on her trip to the Holy Land.

Following the business meeting, each member gave a short Christmas meditation. Gladys Dickelman concluded our program by reading a very lovely Christmas story entitled "The Angel Who Refused to Sing".

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
