

Circle G.

Jan. 18, 1962.

The meeting was brought to order by Chairman, Evelyn Grant. Devotions were given by Doris Devore.

Mary Ann Shultz introduced Reverend Kirk, who gave us a Theological Quiz. It was a most interesting and thought provoking program.

A letter was read from Barbara Schreiner thanking us for the book sent her by our Circle.

Mary Ann Shultz, Dorothy Jacobsen and Helen Stiehl offered to bake cookies for the Elgin State Hospital. Charlotte Jones volunteered to go to the Elgin State Hospital and assist with the monthly party. Jean Brown announced there would be a work day at her home Thursday, January 25th. Items would be made for the Lake Bluff Bazaar.

Florence Clarkson gave the treasurer's report. Balance on hand is

In the absence of our secretary, the minutes of the last meeting were not read.

Reverend Kirk closed our meeting with a prayer.

Coffee and rolls were served prior to the business meeting by Jean Brown and Vivian Stutzman.

Respectfully submitted.

Circle G. February 15th, 1962.

The meeting was brought to order by Chairman, Evelyn Grant, who, in the absence of the Treasurer, also gave the Treasurer's Report which showed a balance on hand of $83.67. Evie mentioned that Mrs. Fisher had asked us to donate our Sunshine Fund to the Blanket Fund, and this was done.

Julie Singer was a guest and it is hoped she will be a member of our Circle.

Various dates for future activities of the Church were mentioned:

May 9th - Mother Daughter Banquet

April 13-14th Rummage Sale, Anna Mae Walter in Charge of our Circle

There will be no daytime April meeting as we are asked to attend a play given by the Oak Park Players on April 9th at 8:00 P.M. in the Church.

June 7th, the 1st Thursday, is the date of the Salad Luncheon

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Society has asked that we give a name to our Circle, instead of the designation letter we now use, and we are to have suggestions at the March meeting.

We were told that Valentines had been sent to the Indian children, including pencils and erasers, and Polly Cody suggested we write Pen-Pal letters to them as another way to express our interest in them

We were reminded that a Lenten Reading List would be posted in the Library.

Betty Callanan reminded us of the Service League's Benefit held at the Civic Opera House on February 24th, with the Boston Pop's Orchestra performing, for the benefit of Lake Bluff's Children's Home.

Devotions were presented by Jacque Rieke, taken from a magazine article by Arthur Godfrey which included this thought for the day:

God has invested in me
What I am is His gift to me.
What I become is my gift to Him.

The business meeting adjourned and work was begun on articles for the Lake Bluff Christmas Bazaar.

Respectfully submitted.,

Madelyne Green, Secretary.

Circle G - March 15, 1962.

The meeting was brought to order by the Chairman, Evie Grant.

The program was presented by Jean Lazenby, entitled "The Easter Story in Art." Slides were shown of many of the beautiful works of Art which famous painters of the centuries have created depicting the death and resurrection of the Christ. This was a truly inspirational program, beautifully presented.

Polly Cody led the devotions.

Florence Clarkson gave the Treasurer's Report, and urged everyone to get their pledges in soon as the books of the WSCS are closed in May.

Anna Mae Walters asked for volunteers to work at the Rummage Sale and a lively discussion followed of ways and means to accomplish a successful sale. It was suggested that some way be found to make additional money for our Circle at the Rummage Sale by selling some particular item in addition to the main sale.

Everyone was urged to attend the April 9th joint meeting at the Church at 8:00 P.M. to enjoy the Choral Reading to be presented by the Des Plaines Methodist Players.

The May Meeting was announced as a Work-Meeting at the home of Evie Grant.

A card of Sympathy was sent by the Secretary to Mr. & Mrs. Harold Giese to express our thoughts at the loss of their daughter.

The meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Madelyne Green. Sec'y.

'Rim of Asia' would be held at the home of Ann Nigren in Biltmore, on October ~~9th, 16th,~~ 25th, and 30th. and the first two weeks in November.

Wilma Linder explained the Pledge envelope system we use for collection of our pledges for the year.

Jackie Rieke volunteered to open her home for the Christmas Meeting to be held on December 13th.

Doris Devore reminded everyone of the Prayer Group to be held on Wednesday mornings, with the first Wednesday of every month devoted to visitation of members. Jean Brown reminded the group of the Bazaar held at the Lake Bluff Children's Home on September 28th, and announced, also, that the Tag Day this year would be held in Chicago on October 5th, and that taggers would be on duty from 9:30 to 11:30 AM. It was announced, also, that the Rummage Sale Dates had been changed to October 26th and 27th, and that furniture pick-up would be on Sunday afternoon, Octo. 21st, only.

The Ways and Means Project for our particular Circle at the Rummage Sale was decided upon, and it is planned that we will sell Pumpkins that Alice Honeycutt has offered to provide.

Vivian Stutzman announced that the Wreaths used in the Church at Christmas-time need refurbishing this year, and hopes that some of us will offer to help her in this task.

Announcement was made, also, of the Elgin State Hospital Christmas Party, and also of the parties in January and May. Peg Cox needs help for these parties and it is hoped that several people will offer to help her in this worth-while project.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Madelyne Green, Sec'y.
