"Social" in the Sun
Breakfast & More

In lieu of the customary LBS Ladies Club meeting in July, join the group for a "Social" in the Sun. Relish a delicious breakfast catered by "Egg Shells" of Lake Zurich on the pool patio while enjoying companionship and conversation with friends and neighbors!

LBS Ladies Club offers a mid-summer time to relax and enjoy, Monday, July 11 @ 9:30am. (Please note the earlier time.) All this for just $8.00. Send check to Carol Andler, 412 Valley View. And also please note, due to space, seating will be limited; so don't hesitate to reserve now!

We "instructed" the heavens to produce a picture-perfect summer day. But plans are in readiness, rain or shine.

Oh, the Places She Will Take Us

LBS Ladies Club welcomes Zina Jacque, a well-known Barrington community leader, on Monday, September 12th. She will revisit the works of Shel Silverstein (The Giving Tree) and Margery Williams (The Velveteen Rabbit) utilizing these stories of hope and joy, wisdom and wit, to learn again the wisdom of the ages through the eyes of a child. Zina is a captivating and inspiring presenter who will give you thoughts to digest as you view your own relationships with friends and family. And, if you are inclined, bring your favorite childhood book with you as well. Who knows "the places we will go"!

Come meet and be inspired by this wonderful personality at 10:30am in the ULL. As usual, your $2 gets you not only a fascinating program, but coffee and refreshments as well.

Where'd the Salt & Pepper Come From?

LBS Ladies Club is pleased to present Lanny Ori, renowned book reviewer and LBS resident, at the October gathering.

Lanny will review "At Home: A Short History of Private Life." The author, Bill Bryson, lives in an antiquated home once a 19th century rectory. He became fascinated with the history of common items in the household like cookbooks, glass windows, salt & pepper shakers, ice, etc. With a playful and impish humor he has unearthed extraordinary stories and drawn connections between an eclectic array of events that affected home life then such as cholera outbreaks and flammable hoopskirts,

Set aside Monday, October 10th at 10:30 a.m. in the ULL. Be prepared to be captivated by this knowledgeable and inspiring book reviewer.

LBS Ladies Club Announces...

Sunday, December 4th

Holiday Gala!! Events will begin with a Wine Gathering followed by a wonderful holiday musical featuring Gavin Coyle. Those of you who enjoyed Gavin's Celtic music in a March concert will want to return and bring friends to this performance of Holiday Favorites!!! Knowing how well received Gavin was, you are encouraged to save the date, then book as soon as reservations are announced.

Saturday, November 12th

This will be the annual Food Drive, so start planning now. None of us have to be convinced of the need, so let's look for bargains and buy double if we can.

All of November into early December

Hats, mittens, scarves, and gloves will again be collected and as an LBS contribution to Barrington Giving Day in December.
