The speaker will appear in his native costume and will also sing some hymns in his native tongue. No admission fee, but a collection will be taken at close of service.

A bad wreck occurred between here and Arlington Heights Saturday night. A freight train going towards Chicago broke in two, after leaving Palatine. The engineer, after discovering the accident, slowed up to let the rear end of the train come up. The rear end was coming at a greater speed than he anticipated and when it ran into the first section a general smash-up was the result. Four cars were totally wrecked and another one badly damaged. Two cars were loaded with cinders, a box car containing flour and another loaded with machinery were wrecked. It took until midnight to clear the track.

An Old Settler Gone.

H. H. Pahlmann, an old settler of Long Grove, died Wednesday, February 21, at his home in Long Grove. Deceased was born in Germany April 15, 1812, and came to America in 1835. He settled at Long Grove in 1842 where he has since resided. Besides an aged widow he leaves ten children, Herman Pahlman of this place being a son. The funeral services will be held at Long Grove at 12 o'clock noon today.

The Palatine maennerchor never does anything half way. Their reputation is such that when they get up a dance a crowd is sure to attend. Battermann's hall was filled to overflowing Thursday night by dancers and spectators to the masquerade ball. Over one hundred maskers were present. Otto Schmidt rendered solos that set the crowd a roaring and the little German band, the quartet, the jolly monk and all the celebrities advertised were on hand and kept the crowd continually amused. The crowd was the largest ever in attendance at a dance here in many years. The maennerchor can feel proud of their effort. Prizes will be announced in next Saturday's REVIEW. A large number from Barrington were present.

School Entertainment.

The school pupils gave a splendid entertainment in the Methodist church Tuesday evening before an audience which nearly filled the entire church. There was not a hitch in the program during the entire evening and the teachers deserve high praise for the skill shown in training the little folks. Patriotism and Washington's life were the subjects throughout the program. The club quartette sang "Illinois" in a splendid manner and were called on for a repetition. About a hundred books were brought in for the library and $8.30 in cash.

After the program Prof. Smyser stated that the library was open for the use of the public at 3:30 o'clock each school day and patrons of the school were welcome to use the books.

School Notes.

Messrs. H. C. Matthei and C. D. Taylor were school visitors Tuesday.

Miss Amabel Hardin taught Miss Dewey's room Monday in the latter's absence.

Two very interesting talks on missions were given by Miss De Line in the Methodist church Sunday. The church was filled in the evening and we have heard many flattering comments on the talk that evening. Miss De Line is an exceptionally fluent talker and she showed a wonderful knowledge of the various fields of labor in which mission work is being carried on. Miss Stewart added much to the service with songs. She is a soloist of rare talent and cultivation.

TAX NOTICE.

I will collect the taxes for the town of Palatine at my tailor shop on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week until March 6. Bring your last year's tax receipt.

E. PRELLBERG, Collector.

The English have been accused for so long of dullness in their humor that several stories related of the eminent wit Douglas Jerrold may not be out of place as showing that the charge is sometimes untrue. It appears that at a dinner one gentleman who had been eating a dish of sheep's head with great gusto exclaimed as he laid down his knife and fork, "Sheep's head forever, say I!" "There's egotism," said Jerrold.

Sometimes, through a joke, Jerrold conveyed good advice or a word of warning. He was enjoying a drive one day with a jovial spendthrift behind a pair of grays. "Well, what do you think of my grays?" asked his impecunious friend. "To tell you the truth," replied Jerrold, "I was thinking more of your duns."

Quick at a Hint.

Mr. Slyman, the bookkeeper, received a present of $10 from his employer. He expected more and was greatly disappointed. He dropped the money on the floor in the presence of his employer, as if accidentally, and stooped to pick it up.

"Did you find it all?" asked his employer after a few minutes. "No; I found only $10!"—Fliegende Blatter.

Satisfied Her.

Prospective Bride—I know it's foolish, doctor, but to gratify a natural curiosity will you please let me see the form of service you intend to use in marrying us? The Rev. Dr. Fourthly—it will not be necessary, my dear young woman. I never use the word "obey" in the marriage service.—Chicago Tribune.
