If you bring children into the world a responsibility rests on you. You have to take care of them. Live in the world. And this practical knowledge can be done in a well managed home better than anywhere else.

This morning Mrs. Carrie A. Kendall received a draft for $10.00 in payment for her claim as beneficiary in a policy her late husband had taken out. Of course the money was paid to the Court of Honor. The society has the reputation of being very liberal in all its claims and this is the proof.

An invitation is extended to members of the Masonic lodge, order of the Eastern Star and Royal Arch Chapter to attend an informal party to be given in the Casino hall, W. A. in the village, called "Ladies' Social" on March 22. Games at eight o'clock.

"St. Patrick's Day in the morning" proved to be a very successful affair. The amount of money collected was enough to discharge the patriotic loan of "Life Green" of the most enthusiastic liberality. Despite the repelling over the wearing of the green the financial situation seemed more bright.

Amada, the seven-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anthony of Chicago, died of a grandchild. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gieske of Barrington brought the child to the hospital at noon Thursday. Service was held in the Zion church at one o'clock. Interment was in Deerpark cemetery.

Duane Polley, the 13 year old son of the late Rev. and Mrs. John Polley who were crushed to death by a C. & N. train, died last week at St. Mary's in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, last Sunday. His father died in the same accident. Jesse Polley, another son, is convalescing.

Next Tuesday afternoon, J. G. Fisher expects to leave for the annual conference session which meets March 22-23 at the Hotel Hamilton, St. Paul, Minn. Members is the delegate elected to the quarterly conference of the Salem church and Rev. H. Meyer will leave next Wednesday afternoon, in order to be present at the opening of conference on Thursday morning, March 24, at the Presbyterian church, Chicago this year. The session will be an important one as three new preachers are to be elected.

Some reasons why it was not proposed are—He was always grumbling and lowering the tone of the church; his stock exchange was "I forget" he felt about his position; he tried to make money; take the place of ability; he thought he must take the place of ability; he was not satisfied of his parents because they were once dis-faithful.

With the death of the woman, girls to meet their day right at the head, the Y. M. C. A. has arranged to have a meeting on Friday night, March 25, there will be a "Leap Year" basket social in the village. Each gentleman is requested to bring the regulation fairy basket or something of the kind. His name and each lady is asked to come prepared to buy a ticket. Any lady who is not present is badly disappointed.

An entertaining lesson was spent at the White school last Friday night. The lesson was on the treatment of friends. A lengthy but successfully explained lesson was given by the teacher, the children for the arrangement of such a pleasant occasion. The lesson was on the treatment of friends. A lengthy but successfully explained lesson was given by the teacher, the children for the arrangement of such a pleasant occasion.

Young men and women who so far forgot the village of Main that they could not be reached, a scandalous claim to responsibility. They not only forgot the name of the public but also the name of the village.

At the hands of the authorities as they were in the village of Main. Several hours in the lock-up and a good night for disorderly conduct might be a warning.

Some women will believe any kind of a story so long as it is a scandal connected with it.

The children of room 3 enjoyed a vacation day, the 13th inst., while the teacher, Miss Meier, attended a fourth grade meeting at Lyons.

The class for beginners will be organized April 4. Those who have little time to spend will please attend on that date. It is greatly desired to have them all begin on the same day.

The play "Julius Caesar" is being completed by the high school by the principal teacher of the play. The study of "Sis Marner" will soon be begun.

As an outgrowth of the meeting February 21, of the mothers who were present to the first and second grades, a meeting was held last March 4, room 1. At this meeting Kate Dodge, Mrs. J. H. Meyer, and Mrs. J. H. Meyer, "How Shall We Govern Our Children," was read and briefly discussed. All realized that no definite conclusion could be reached. The hearty response to these meetings by the mothers caused the ladies to feel very encouraging and gratifying to those having charge of said department, and very significant of an earnest desire on the children's part, their work.

The Friday night meeting, the one so postponed for these meetings. However, the next meeting will not be held until the second night in April as the first Friday occurred during vacation.
