The village election has passed and while it was a quiet affair there are a number of wounded whe relates to be conforted. The caususes held for the monination of candidaces—both People's and Arti-Saloon—were such triedy arranged meetings, that the numagars were satisfied that everything was just as it ought to be thing was just as it ought to be. The auti saloo, people land figured on a largely increased vote for their theket, and, of course, were disappointed. The sponsers for the Pople's ticket ligured out the contest and with one exception, came vormer being correct in their forecast. There were those who made all imaner of predictions—now they know

The defeat of the "No Lie ticket was a foregone conclusion. It was again demonstrated very forcibly that the people of this village favor the licensed saloon. During the year that the people of this village favor the licensed salom. During the year past the forces opposed to the liquor rathic had prepared for thelegampaign and led to expect additions to their strength. The result shows that a man does not always vote as he talks. The defaut of Fred E. Lines, candi-date for police magistrate of the con-dition of the control of the con-trol of the con-t
