CHAPTER XXII—Continued.
The moment for action had arrived for James Blass. He compressed his lips, strode through the room and a moment later entered John's office.
In the final struggle passion was triumphant, and he nerved himself as beet he could for the ordeal.
John Burt looked up. The haggard expression on Blake's face alarmed him.

him.

"What's happened, Jim? You're pale as a ghost!"

"It's a tooth," said Blake, rubbing his hand tenderly over his face. "I'm all right now, but it gave me a bad right. The desuits drew it this morning. I dined with General Carden. I

I suppose—"

as Jessie returned? Did you see

Has Jessie returned? Did you see .Jml"
Miss Carden has not returned, but its expected to sail next Tweeday."
Blake, nervously lighting a cit—
That hoped to bring you be news, John, but this is the best if the .It is the content of the .It is .It .It is .I

ing date."

A shade of disappointment passed over John Burt's face when Blake spoke, but a smile chased it away
when he mentioned the time of her

when he mentioned the time of her departure.

"You did right, Jim," he exclaimed. Tack's see? Tuesday is the thirteenth. I'm glad Jossie isn't superstitions. That should bring her to New York on the twentieth. That's littlesen days from now."

Blake turned ashea when the second thirteen was amounced, but John's eyes were fixed on the innocent calendar, his thoughts were four thousand miles across a heaving occas, and he didn't notice the superstitions agony imprinted on the other's face.

John Burt leaned back in his chair and half closed his eyes.

Burt leaned back in his chair of closed his eyes.

John! Heou are ye, John Burt! I'm plumb tickled ter death ter see ye! Well, well, well!"

His housest even the state of the yell well, well well!"

His housest even the floor and grasped John's hands with a grip which have made the average man wince.

"And I'm glad to see you, Sam! It seems like coming back to life to meet you. Sid down and tell me all about yourself and Rocky Woods."

"The last time I saw ye, John, but horse an' I sint seen ye since. Now you begin at the place like in the stories which run in the Fireside Companion where it says to be obtained to the stories which run in the Fireside Companion where it says to be obtained to the stories which run in the Fireside Companion where it says to be obtained in the stories which run in the private of the stories which run in the private of the stories which run in the fireside Companion where it says to be obtained in the stories which run in the stories was the stories whit in the stories was the stories whit in the stories was the stories which run in the Dangerous Mexican Weed to Smoke.

Manuel Guerrero and Florencio Pino had the "nathunan' habit, and for the last few weeks had been smoking big cigarettes in which tobacco was mixed with the dangerous weed.
Tuesday afternoon the two men smoked cigarettes composed of tobacco in smaller proportion than marihuana, and after a few minutes ran amuck.

smoked cigarettes composed of tobacco in smaller proportion than marihuana, and after a few minutes ran amock.

They obtained and attackling everytop-contensing and attackling everytop-collectains and everytop-col

York Tribune.

Franklin's View of Life.

When I reflect, as I frequently do, upon the felicity I have enjoyed. I sometimes say to myself, that, were the offer made me, I would enjoyed.
In again, from beginning the same career of life. All I would ask should be the privilege of an author to correct in a second edition, certain errors of the fart—Fyranlin.

ILLINOIS NEWS

RAINFALL BENEFITS FARMERS

Well Distributed Showers Put Ground in Fine Condition.

Ground in Fine Condition.

The crop belletin for the week ended Sept. 15 says well distributed showers occurred, putting the ground in fine condition for plowing and seedcuted under Averable conditions. A considerable area has been sown to wheat, yre and timothy, but much seeding of wheat remains to be done.
Some early sown fields are showing groen.

Corn was seeding.

week, rye and timoth, but much seeding of wheat remains to be done. Some early sown fields are showing. Corn was practically uncested by frost. A portion of the crop is now aske and the remaininder is advuncing toward maturity. Some early fields have been cut for fodder. Grasses have been cut for fodder. Grasses have been the first of the contrains and supple fall freed is indicated. Broomcorn is being harvested. An average yield of good quality is indicated. Grapes are yielding bountifully. Pears and plums are promising. Apples will give a fair yield in the northern section, but in the central and southern districts they are very unpromising.

WEALTH BRINGS ITS TROUBLES Wife Abuses Her Husband When For

Wife Abuses Her Husband When Fetune is Left to Her.

Joseph Effect, exhiptway commissioner of Alton, was granted a directe from Annie Effen in the city court. He alleged that his wife was guilty of extreme and repeated cruelity, that she struck him on the head with a poker, beat him with a club and locked him out of the family home. "The Maples," and keep than out for a week. Neighbors testified that they had seen Mir. Effers masual ther husband. Mir. Effers may a kirs Molloy. Mr. Effers married her. Esbesquestiy, it was claimed, a relative in Buffalo, N. Y., died and left the Molloys $10,000, and Effers says his troubles began with the receipt of the left-acy. Mrs. Molloy and children moved to St. Louis some time ago.

Bandit Shoots Salonkeeper.

Bandit Shoots Saloonkeeper.
A bandit entered the saloon of Coorpe Goyen at Steward about 10 o'clock at night and ordered Goyen and three men at the bar to throw up their hands. On their refusal the bandit shot Goyen just above the heart. The man was overpowered and lodged in jail at Dixon. He refused to give his name, but said he was from Chicago.

Water Meters for Sorinofield.

Water Meters for Springfield.

At the city council meeting Mayo
the city council meeting Mayo
ediling for the purchase of water providing for the purchase of water meters to be used by all consumer of city water; that the mayor an comproller do the purchasing an choose the kind of meter.

Children Are Burned in Explosion.
Mrs. Mary Casteel, a widow, of Quincr, went to her work, leaving her children at home. In her absence a daughter, aged 9, and a son, aged 7, attempted to start a fire with gasoline. Both received burns which will probably be fatal.

W. C. T. U. Election.
At the county convention of the
Which was held at Conterful; officer
were elected as follows: Fresident,
Miss Mary Futerson; recording secrecording to the county, Mrs. McElroy; treasurer, Mrs.
Monie.

Guarantees to Repair Streets.

The Alton Light and Traction corpany has filed a bond of $5,000 for it restoration of the city streets to the former condition after they have bettorn up for the laying of gas mains.

Falls Down Flight of Stairs.

Mrs. Pembroke, wife of Dr. Pembroke, fell down a flight of stairs at home in East St. Louis, sustaining severe injuries. She was sent to St. Mary's hospital.

Methodist Memorial Hospital.
Rev. E. S. Wamsley has been employed by the Illinois M. E. conference to raise $40,000 for the purpose of building a memorial bospital at Mattoon.

Buys Land at East Pana.
W. S. Lofferty of Clinton has purchased thirty acres adjoining East Pana, including the baseball grounds,
from J. A. Barding. Consideration, $5,000.

Fire Destroys Iron Works.
Fire broke out in the Central iron works at Quincy. The building was almost totally destroyed. Loss, $10,000, fully insured.

Work for 200 Miners.
The air shaft at the St Ellen coal mine, one mile west of O'Pallon, has been completed and the mine will be put in full operation at once, giving employment in a short time to about 200 miners.

Police Chief is Shet.
Chief of Police William G. Goodin
of Litchfield was shot in the right ler
just below the knee by the accidental itscharge of his revolver Thursday. It s thought the wound will not result seriously.

se Houses Close to Permit Em

Business Houses Close to Permit Employee to Attend Reunion.
The treaty-second annual reunion of the Southern Illinois Soldiers' and Ballors' association was held at Duquoin. This was one of the most uncessful reunions in the history of the association. Sivery firm in the city subpensed business at 12 °Colock and the control of the con

POSTMASTER DIES.

Ciarence A. Murray, well known to politicians in the northern part of the state, died at Waukegan of Bright's discase. For ten years he had been postmaster, and conducted the office in an acceptable manner. Being a bo-

C.A. MURPAY tel man, his acquaintance with the traveling public was extensive. Mr. Murray was 53 years old. He was born in Elgin, and had lived here since 1862. For ten years he served as chairman of the Republican committee of Lake county.

mittee of Lake county.

Frankfert & Ohio River Line.
Articles of incorporation have been filed at Springfield of the Frankfort & Ohio River Railroad company. The principal office is to be in Chicago. The copilal stocks in non-insularized a railroad from West Frankfort through the counties of Frankfin, Williamson, Saline and Gallatin to a point on the Ohio river in the county of Gallatin. The incorporators and first board of directors are: Jonathan P. Reeres, Edward H. Senneff, John J. Duck, Fred W. Krohn and Harrison F. Jones, all of Chicago.

F. Jones, all of Chicago.
Body of Man Found in Slough.
Drayty Corener Brichler of Bast St.
Louis held an inquest on the body of a man apparently about 60 years of age, who was found dead in a slough near Bitby, a small settlement on the Valley railway, in the southern portion of St. Clair county. It is believed that the deceased fell from a trestic which crosses the slough, and that he was drowned. He wore a black coat was drowned. He wore a black coat as dead of the company of the state of the and gray trousers, and was partially baid.

To Preserve Post Archives.
A district soldiers' union has been formed by the G. A. R. posts of the townships about the archives of all the posts and to form a union, having best sand to form a union, having headquarters at Direks. The officers are as follows: President G. W. Horner, El Paso; vice-president, G. Tobles, Washington; secretary and treasurer, W. H. H. Moberry, Eureka.

To Entertain Miss Gould.
Mis Helen Miller Gould of New York will be the guest of the Young Men's Caristian association in Decaur on Oct. 22. She will see the Gould of the Train and remain until midnight. She has contributed short $2,500 to the Decaure branch of the association.

Race on Sunday.

The Breese Driving association will hold another meet at their park at Breese Sunday afternoon, Sept. 25.

Four hundred dollars has been offered in premhuma.

Aged Woman Falls From Bed.
Mrs. F. Fischer of Douglas, four miles south of Believille, was taken to St. Elisabeth's hospital, suffering with a tracture of the left leg. she is 71 years old and sustained the injury by a fall from her bed.

Lightning Destroys Barna.
The barns of John Walters, Thomas Fink and J. W. Soor, near Pans, were struck by lightning and burned. Five head of logs and 100 tons of hay were also destroyed. The loss will roach $4,00.

Fall of Slate Kills Official at the Ridge

Fall of Slate Kills Official at the Ridge Prairie Mine.

JUngene Kild, aged 45, a mine examiner employed in the Ridge Prairie mine, thriteen miles west of O'Fallon, was killed by a fall of stone and state, and a state of the s

HONOR FOR HUSBAND AND WIFE

MONOR FOR HUSBAND AND WIFE Couple Head G. A. R. and W. R. C. for Washington and Alaska.
Frank M. Davis and wite, Mrs. Nangrank M. Davis and wite, Mrs. Nangrank M. Davis and wite, Mrs. Nangrank M. Davis and wite, Mrs. Nangrant at Boston. Mrs. Davis is a sister from attending the G. A. R. and the Women's Relief corps annual encampment at Boston. Mrs. Davis is a sister of Charles King of Alton. The couple have the distinction of being the only husband and wife in the United States who are holding at the same time the offices of the department commanders of the two organizations, the Women's the Republic. Mr. Davis is department president of the Women's Relief corps
for the same department.

Prisoner Pleads Case.

for the same copartment.

Prisoner Pleade Case.

William Bradd, charged with burglary, conducted his own case so effectively as to secure an acquittal from a jury in the circuit coart at Paris. He declined to have counsel appointed by the court, and after conducting a skillibil defense, made a closing argument which caused half the juryers to shed tears. Judge W. N. Thompson denounced the finding an outrage and a travesty on justice. Bradd's home is in Terro Haste.

Zispler Striker is Convicted.
Guiseppi Macori, one of the strikers of the Ziegler Coal company, was tried in the United States circuit court at Syringfeld on the charge of contempt of court by violating Judge limphrey's injunction against interfering with the operations of the Ziegier company's mine. He was found guilty on two counts and was sentenced by Judge Humphrey to injusty days in the Sangamon county jail.

days in the Sangamon county jail.

Land Sult is Remanded.

The case of the lown of Bolo against John Lisrewhit has been remanded by the appellate court at Mount Vernon for a new trial on error in Instructions by the Washington county circuit court. The case involves a section of land in Bolo township which Lisrewhit is alleged to have converted to prict use. A jury returned a vendict in his Bolo.

Members of the Central Trades and Labor union and the officers of all unions at East St. Louis perfected arrangements for organizing the Fed-eral Labor union, which will embrace all classes of labor, with representa-tives from the different labor locals.

Grant's Old Regiment Meets.
The annual reunion of the Twenty-first Illinois regiment was held at Bethany. This regiment had the distinction of being commanded by Gen. U. S. Grant. Over eighty members of the regiment were in attendance.

Sues Standard Oil Company.
Samuel Delts of Decatur has started a suit for $20,000 damages against the Standard Oil company of Kentucky.
He claims to have been seriously injured while employed by the company.

Recovers His Rig.

The borse and buggy of Ernest Borchelt, which was stolen from the court house hitching rack in Nazhville, was found tied to a tree on one of the streets of Ashley, ten miles away.

Brakeman is Crushed.
Fred Zimmerman, a brakeman on the Illinois Central, was crushed between two freight cars at Tamaroa.
His recovery is doubtful.

Thrown From Train, James Clark of Ashley was thrown from a passenger train in the illinois Central yards in Daquoia and suffered the loss of his left foot.

Lightning Fires Barns.
The barns of Jacob Leivan, John Schenck, Walter Leivan and McDermott at Dixon were struck by lightning and destroyed by fire. A great many farmers lost stock by having it killed by lightning.

To Entertain Veterana.
The annual reunion of the 117th
Illinois volunteer infantry will be held in Liederkrann hall. Belleville, Oct.
17. At the meeting of the Women's Relief corps arrangements were made to antertain the veterana.

lieved, as has been stated, that every man has his price, and was willing to pay It, provided it promised returns. Ambitious to pose as a Wall Street leader, Arbur Morris had assumed in enormous load of stocks, and the ruccess of his ventures had given his the following which ever strendth the following which ever strendth in the securate risk. Morris had secured several valuable franches, and was confidently in expectation of others at the hands of the city officials. It will be sufficiently accurate to designate the Morris enterprise to purpower the the secure of the city officials. It will be sufficiently accurate to that its assets consisted in its acquired and prospective franchises. While purporting to afford relief from existing monopolles, it was in fact nothing more nor less than a well-planned attempt to acquire complete the secure of finance that its assets consisted in the security of the MATTER "MILIT SHALL I DO; WHAT CAN I DO? I CANNOT GIVE HER UP! BY -ILL NOT ONE HER UP FOR ANY IMAN; NOT EVEN FOR JOSTY HERY!

"Two weeks, lacking a day," he mused aloud. "There is a long-standing account I should like to settle before Jessie returns," he said, turning to Blake, who had partly regained be compressed.

the dealer returns, he said, turning to Blake, who had partly regained his composure.

"The elder Morris ruined General Carden as deliberately as ever one man did another," declared John Burt, his deep gray eres flashing a menace as he brought his hand to the deak with a blow which make in the deak with a blow which and the man his father woned. The certainty of this reconciles me to helonger absence. I shall with this campaigs, Jim, and It's my last one, when the heart"

"Thursday," answered Blake.
"I shall dot wait for Hawkins," said John Burt, abruptly. "He owns a block of this Le & O. stock and it shall assume that I have his cooperation. I shall have control of a dealer of the deal

Blake.
"It opens to-day at a quarter," said
John Burt, standing over the ticker.
"Take all offerings up to thirty, but do not force matters. You understand, Jim? Watch it closely and keep me advised."
"I understand," said Blake, as he

"I understand," said Blake, as he arose to go.

"Wait a minute," called John, as the other stood by the door. "Sam Rounds was in to see you yesterday, was he not!"

"Send for him at once. Tell him "Send for him at once. Tell him it women the protrait. This sail."

"Send for him at once. Tell him does not seem to won office and four himself into a chair. He felt as if he had agod years in the hour that had passed.

CHAPTER XXIII.

When Handolph Morris retired in favor of his son he transferred no small burden of responsibility to the absoluters of the latter. Arthur Morris inherited his father's money and his ambittons, but not his masterity eras, of affairs. Arthur Morris had little rympathy with that fine old conservation which stops short of them.

'egal authority assured him that the 'anchises already granted to the Cosmopolitan were invalid.

As the crisis in his affairs neared,
Ichn Burt took a more direct charge
James Blake & Company were informed that "John Burton" was a silent partner, who represented large California interests, and shat his orders must be followed without question, response to James Blake's message, Alderman Samuel Rounds called and was conducted to the private ofdice of the famous operator.

Blake had anticipated with zest the meeting between John Burt and Sam
Rounds. It had been contemplated
for several weeks, but now that the
meeting between John Burt and Sam
Rounds. It had been contemplated
for several weeks, but now that the
meeting between John Burt and Sam Rounds. It he found it difficult to respond to Sam's hearty greeting,
and terminated the intervy was soon
as possible.

"Hoou are ye, Jim; heou are ye;
exclaimed Sam, as he greeted Blake
in his luxurious office. Thor't it beat
in his luxurious office. Thor't it beat in his luxurious office. Thor't it yor had been
were only three of us young fellers
young had been
were only three of us young fellers
yound Rocky Woods; you an' John Burt an' me. Do you suppose we'll
we're only three of us young fellers
yound Rocky Woods; you an' John Burt an' me. Do you suppose we'll
we're only three of us young fellers
yound Rocky Woods; you an' John
Burt an' me. Do you suppose
"Would you litte to hear from him!" asked Blake, without raising his cyes,
"Would !! Dye know anything erbout him, Jim? Dew ye really?"

Thore's a man in the seak and did
not turn his head or make a move
when Blake seated at his deak and did
not turn his head or make a move
when Blake seated at his deak and did
not turn his head or make a move
when Blake seated at his deak and did
not turn his head or make a move
when Blake seated at his deak and did
not turn his head or make a move

when Blake seated at his deak and did
not turn his head or make a move