C. S. Dehoen, endidate for gover-or, will arrive in Palatine on the 12:40 train Wednesday and after lunch will speak in Abelmann's hall, at 2 o'clock. Other candidates will be pre-sent.

Rev. Young and wife have moved into the Methodist parsonage and are getting settled in their new home. The new pastor has made a good im-pression among the church people and we predict an era of prosperity for the church.

Mr. Wallace Putnam and Miss Louiss Bogarden of Highland, Grore were married at Wheston, Ill., Thurs-day, October 20th, 3 o'clock. They have the best wishes of a bast of friends in this village. Mr. and Mrs. Putnam will reside in the upper flat of F. H. Keyes' residence.

Abelmann's hall was well filled last Abelmann's hall was well filled last Wednesday night when the first next lang of the campaign was held. Judge C. S. Outting of Chicago made a very able and impressive address. He stated that every year since he was a voter he has delivered a campaign speech in Palatine and the one last Wednesday night was his eighth one. He used no abuse in his remarks, but his comparisons of the two palatorus was a vivid illustration of the two parties. His comparison of the qualities of the two candidates as to pre-idential fibers was a truthful statement of the facts and convincing in its conlusions."

The contemptable practices resorted to by some of the justices and constables of Cook county are a disgrace to the state. The judges of the circuits and superior courts of Cook county have undertaken the work of making it warm for blackmallers and signwaymen who are doing business under the disguise of attorneys, constables and justices of the pengs, and is is be hoped they will be successful.

Entertianed Dundee League.
Twenty-five members of the Dundee Egworth league were entertained by the Barrington league at the M. E.
butch parior Tuesday, exciting Oct.
25th. After a short program an oyster supper was served. The guests departed assuring the Barrington league that "they were all right."
A pleasant coincidence was the opnortanity to entertain the, new Dunportanity to entertain the, new Dun-parted assuring the Barrington league that 'they were all right.'

A pleasant boincidence was the opportupity to entertain the new Dundee pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Tutties, asyplia as the new Barrington pastors and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. The Barrington league was never in a more presperous condition than at present, much of the credit being due to the faithful and efficient work of the president, Miss Battle Tuttle. She now being obliged to resign Barry Mock was unanimously elected president of the league at its business meeting on Monday rending. The best wishes of the league go with Miss Tuttle to be free wield.
Among the many luteregting features of the meeting was the following 'Welcome' which was 'read by Mr. Mock:

Dundee's hills were bright and green Er's tinged by Astumn with a ruddler hu And a rippling river flow between And leinds its beauty to the riew, While cottages neat and massions grand Are platniy seen on either hand, And quite a handsome town is she ATTACK DENEEN.

The Opposition Issues a Pamphe Against Republican Nominee.

The Democratic pempheteer has again broken out against Mr. Democrathis them with the charge that he is responsible for the fact that a good many children in Chicago are without adequate school facilities; that there are not sittings enough in the school houses to give each child a seat all day.

Well Well What next? It is even known, or course, to those posted in more controlled to the children, the course of the children and the children that the children that private rooms have to be rested for some of the children, and that come children for lack of room, can attend achool what days. But what has Mr. Demeen to do with all this? This lack of school accommodations, if it is any-body's fault, is the fault of the school house of the children and the children that is discovered by the children of the children and the children that is the fault of the school house of the children of t
