Merry Christmas

Peace on Earth:

Good Will to Men.

THE imperial child to whom the wise men brought their gifts, and worshipped in His lowly nest, gave no gift back.

It was Himselfthey sought, and finding Him, Were sated in their quest. Their gifts, not Expectation, but their joy expressed.

Now was the world's long yearning satisfied! Now was the prize long waited for possessed! Their gifts meant love, unmarred By lust or pride Be it so with ours: our aim, not debts to pay,

Nor any recompense save love to win. Nor any grosser feeling to convey Than brought the wise men's gifts to Bethlehem's inn. These rate we best that No return afford save the pure sense Of having found our Lord,
