

Feminine Snapshots

What Women are Saying and Doing

Queer creatures are women—at least some of them. I have met one of the richest women in the world, an American woman, who has made her fortune by buying and selling her own shrivelled and strict attractions to men. For over thirty years she sold off a sort of "curative" to men. She was a genuine feminist sex engineer in commercial enterprise. She lived all alone at home with her family. She was a business woman, but had no husband or children. She was a woman of her own, with her own shrewdness and strict attractions to men.

"I have sold my concoction to men for over thirty years," said off a sort of "curative" to men. She was a genuine feminist sex engineer in commercial enterprise. She lived all alone at home with her family. She was a business woman, but had no husband or children. She was a woman of her own, with her own shrewdness and strict attractions to men.
