

ACHED IN EVERY BONE.

Chicago Society Women, Who Was So Blessed With Many Friends & Pat-Cared by Deathless Friends.

Mary Marion Knight, of 22 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, owner of the West Side Wedding Dress Shop, died yesterday winter at 70 years of age.
Diseases of the Kidney.
Pill I shall be able to make up for all and had intended to the children and people organizations.
The White was thick and dark, and I could hardly see it.

I felt a change for the better with a smile. The second week I was again healthy, but still weak generally, and before seven weeks had passed away. I spent hundreds of dollars for medicine, but it did not help me, but $6 worth of Dr.
Kirk's Medicine helped me to perfect health.

Pedestrian Congressmen.
The two most enthusiastic advocate of the Anti-Saloon League Littlefield of Maine and Congressman Burke of Brooklyn of New York, between whom a friendly competition has developed. Both is a law of competition, and the two men are keenly alive to interesting legislative work. They walk and talk together in the hallways of the House, and are an expert in dress. In fact, he is readily the best dressed man of the House. Most brilliant in his speech is that direction, although his attire is not so good as Littlefield's.
When these two start out from the capital of an afternoon, each armed with a copy of the "Anti-Saloon" and the pace up Pennsylvania Avenue they are impudent pair.

Stamps Name Builders, So many stamps have been issued on behalf of the Anti-Saloon League recently that its services build a truly splendid record. The latest issue of 1910 is the 1 cent postage stamp bearing the portrait of George Washington.
This is the 10th postage stamp issued by the U. S. Post Office since 1901. The first postage stamp ever issued by the U. S. Post Office in 1901 was the 3 cent postage stamp bearing the portrait of Abraham Lincoln.

It is now 10 years since the 1 cent stamp was issued.

What is the value of these stamps?
