"IS THERE A HELL?"

By F, N, LAPHAM

I most heartily agree with those who believe that we should emphasize God's love, but I also believe that there are times when we should hook at another attribute of God, namely God's justice.

Sometimes to our finite mind, sliv, does not seem such a dreadful thing, little to the infinite mind of God, who as just and pure and holy sin cannot be tolerated. Yet in love and mercy instead of condeming every sluner, God has prepared a way whereby man might turn from his sinful ways and be reconciled to God and eternally saved.

Again I most heartily agree with those who prefer as a rule to talk about heaven, but I also believe that it may be to our interests to at least once in a while. face the truth and talk and think about the more disagreeable subject of hell.

"To be forewarned is to be fore.

armed."

Dr. Whedon says "Men sometimes think that the doctrine of eternal condemnation is to eternible to believe
and so refuse to believe or repeat.
The infinitely better way is to say
"The eternal dumnation is so terrible I will make sure not to incur it.

I will make sure not to their it."
In studying the teachings and parables of Christ there are at least three truths that are clearly taught.

1. There will be a great Judgement Day, in which we will all be judged, according to the deeds done in the body.

2. The sentence of condemnation or reward given on the Judgment Day is for everlasting punishment or an everlasting reward. Christ-says at the close of the parable on the Judgment Day in Mathew 25, "And these (the wick-ed) shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteeps into everlasting file."

maxing punishment; but the repareduction into everlasting life."

The Greek word "atomion" here used before punishment, clearly indistributed to everlasting phoisiment as well as eternal or everlasting

Now let us notice the passage of scripture found in Mark 9: 44, "Where the worm dieth not and the fire is not

Dr. Adam Clark said "The bitter Dr. Adam Cark sain when fitter reflection "I might have avoided sin, but I did not; I might have been saved but I would not "must be equal to ten thousand tormentors. What intolerable anguish most this produce in a damned soul! It seems everyone h is his peculiar remorse for the evils be did, and for the grace he rejected that is their worm: while the fire the state of exeruciating torment, is common to all. "The fire is not quen-ched." The state of punishment is continual; there is no respite, allevia-

Reader! may the living God save thee from this worm, and from this thee from this worm, and from this fire: Ameny—

It is very evident that Dr. Clarke held the view that is still held that the wormand the fire are figures representing the terrible remorse gald eternal misery and anguish of the souls that are condemned and eternally sepferate from 60d.

To further show that the sentence at the Judgment Day is eternal, notice following scriptural referances: "The wages of sin is death, but the glift of God is eternal life."

"Who will render to every man

gift of God is eternal life"
"Who will render to every man according to his deeds; to them, who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honor and humortality, eternal life; but Junto them that are contentions and do not obey that are contentions and up not oncy the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every sonl of man that doeth evil; but giory, honor and peace to every man that worketh good."

"He that believeth and is biptized,"
shall be saved, but he that believeth
not shall be damned."
"Who shall be punished with ever;
lasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his nower."

power." "
Be not deceived, God is not mocked: He not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall be also reap: for he that soweth to the desh, shall of the fiesh reap corruption, but he that soweth to the spirit shall of the spirit reap life everlasting."

everiasting."

In these passages and many more that might be given there is a continued existence of wretchedness placed ever agaliss a continued existence of happiness.

3. Now in the third place let me asythat Christ clearly taught, that God is love, and that God would that none should perish but that all might have everlasting life. Because of this great love God has in spite of our sins, prepared a way of salvation whereby enay be pardoned and have eternal life. Curist says in tighting clasping of John, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only legoties for, that who soever beleveth in him should a tepfish but have everlasting life. Far God eset not his Son into the world to condem the world; but that the world through him night be saved.

He that believeth on him is not condement; but he litte believeth not a condement of the little between the condement of the little between the condements.

demned; but he first believeth not is condemned already, because he harb not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

Readers, since there is to be one Judgment Day, at which our final sentence of eternal reward or eternal buni-hment will be given, ought we not to give serious thought concern-the terms of salvation, for, "How shall we escape If we neglect so great salvation?"
