The Modern Revival Meeting
The religious revivals of the present day are not like the revival meetings of years ago in many respects. There is not that deep reverence for the occasion; not that outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Evangelists of the present are too much interested in the financial end of their effort.

Rev. "Billy" Sunday, the ex-baseball star, one of the most successful workers in the field today, always gives special attention to getting the dollars, and he gets them.

We wish our readers to perceive the following. No such need to a meeting held to "say souls" would have been censured 25 years ago. It would have been termed sacrilege of the Lord's house.

At Dixon two weeks ago Sunday evening, Sunday desired the audience to "shell out, liberally," as he expressed it, and when a lot of $3 came from one corner he said: "They must be like this, they always have the gold with 'em." Then "Will Behr, #1," said a collector: "Thank you, Bill," said Sunday, and everybody laughed. "Dr. Brown, #1," called another. "Thanks, Doc, I paid you yesterday," said the evangelist. Somebody threw a silver dollar at the evangelist. He caught it and it was followed by a shower of other dollars. He grabbed right and left, but the light was poor and he finally missed one. "Seven and one error," shouted Sunday, and there was a roar, says the Dixon Star.

Geo. Jenkins and family moved this week into the Lamey house corner Grove Ave. and S. Hawley street.

Engone Sullivan and W. W. Winslow of Chicago argued law points in Justice Morrison's court Tuesday afternoon.

Post and Mrs. N. M. Banta are visiting with relatives at Arlington Heights during Mr. Banta's vacation.

Village Marshal Donler is exhibiting a handson bay colt which gives promise of making a valuable stud.

Misses Emma and Irene Wiseman visited a few days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schulz at Dundee.

Barrington schools were closed this week to allow moving of the school building to make room for the new edifice.

Specimen of ballots to be voted in the towns of Barrington, Cuba and Ela next Tuesday, will be found on pages 4 and 5.

Surgeons from Chicago have been busy this week investigating boundary lines of the Kingsley farm near Barrington Center.

Silas Robertson returned from his trip to Arkansas yesterday. He is exhibiting samples of products from his Carlisle plantation.

The way to kill a town is to send away for everything you want and tell everybody you can't get anything you want in your home town.

A peculiar fact is that 1905 began Sunday and will end on Sunday, and therefore has 53 Sundays. This will not occur again in 100 years.

Will and Fred Landwehr returned home Wednesday after spending the winter at Hot Springs, Ark., and also a visit with relatives in Nebraska.

Wanted—Loan of $25,000 from farm near Fairmont, Minnesota, worth $100,000, for five years at good rate of interest. Mr. McIntosh, owner's Agent.

Born—Monday, March 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Voss, a daughter, "Billy" and his wife are receiving the congratulations of a host of friends.
