A committee of ministers, which took the action after the predential committee of the board refused to assist it, will keep up the fight independent of the company will be continued that a victory is won or all hope lost.

"The protest," says the leiter, "rests on the conviction that the church must not stand in compromising relation to a man who in public thought represents methods that are oppressive, dangerous and wrong. We cannot disregard the effect of the association which his name, in view of facts that are widespered and notorious, unfortunately carries with it.

Question of Moral Prestige.

"The church cannot afford to enter into any relation that may weaken or discredit it in the fulfillment of its task. The main question is one of the church." All the confusion artising from the literal use of the figure tunined money is impersonal; it is not tainted and cannot taffin fornally. "The church owes it to itself and the public congelence to acknowledge responsibility when it voluntarily enteres into dealings with a donor who openly stands impeached of serious offenses which it is out duty to con-responsibility when it voluntarily enters into dealings with a donor who openly stands impeached of serious offenses which it is our duty to condemn.

"It is not required that the church form a tribunal to pass judgment on personal character or probe into the busine's methods of all givers. Such examination is not necessary in refusion, formed on extendive evidence through a long series of years, funishes sufficient basis for such action.

"Fear Corporate Evila.
"Where we must end it shown by the answer of the prudential committee. We must end it declaration of complete irresponsibility for the sources from which we accept gifts. Their words are: "The principle on which this policy rests is the belief that our responsibility begins with the receipt of the gift; before gifts are received the responsibility is not ours, but it is that of donors in their own conscience."
