CHAPTER XIX.

Before the week had ended the "Black Peter? filled her sails for liar-starfa, with Gefolce's parting words of advice repeating themselves in La autie's cars:—

"Wind up your affairs in Louislana, mon and, and do as the emperor desires—return to France, and assume his mind in a turmoil that gave un would austerity to his manner, and awed his crew into much speculation.

The fewer of his first impulse having now abated, he began to upbraid himself for having left Pierre, and wondered if anything evit might have befolken his footpreacher. Day by Querjing as to what if any, changes would be found there, and as to what reogress the war had made.

Louislana, he keep thinself busy by Querjing as to what if any, changes would be found there, and as to what reogress the war had made.

Louislana, and especially New Orleans, must, in his judgment, be destined to bear a share in the conflict even though this might not be until the cleventh hour, for the possession the order of the cleventh hour, for the possession the order of the cleventh hour, for the possession the confliction of the cleventh hour, for the possession the order of the cleventh hour, for the possession that the cleventh hour, for the possession that of the cleventh hour, for the possession that the cleventh hour, for the cleventh hour, for the possession that the possession that the cleventh hour, for the possession that the possession t

And the Island Rose, -how had she been faring all this time, and what, amid the changed conditions he was "Missed thee! Aye, in every way, as I ever do when we are apart. But somehow it was a taste worse this time, perhaps because thou wert tailed. I am growing homesick to go." "And, as I have also said, we will go together, and soon. We will return to Languedoe, thou and I, Pierre, and see the old gardens, and roam in the park, and try to be boys once more." The words ended with a joyous laugh. "And read of De Soto, and Pizarro, and the tales of Louislana." added Pierre interocatively, a curious said nearly thing his once. "We have lived too many practical chapters of a like sort, my Pierre, to ever again enjoy the old book." "And the emperor." said jerre ir "And the emperor." said jerre ir "And the emperor." said jerre ir "And the emperor." said jerre ir many practical chapters or a nonmy Pierre, to ever again eliny the old book."

"And the emperor," said perre inrelevantly; "no think of his keeping the little box of papers for thee!"

"Yet it was like him to do such a thing," assorted Jean, with vibrant tone and clowing face. "Ash if but a tone and clowing face." Ash if but a tweep back in Frame, and free from those curred English."

"Any," Herre affined, a great
Any," Herre affined, a great through of Frame, and their ships sneaking in here to snatch at Louise
sneaking in here to snatch at Louise san and the Missishiph. Cursed English, say I."

From what Pierre told him that slight, Jean Laffitte knew, as clearly as though he had remained at Bara turis, all that had transpired since his departure.

This had been shorts after then
This had been shorts after the
This and to a frown.

neria, all that had transpired since his departure.

This had been shortly after then as Antrew Jackson defeated the treest highins at the battle called 'Todope's kind, and compelled the English to cross-reckoning upon them as almes. And after this signal victory then, Jackson had been given command of the Seventh initiatry district, which included the State of Louisiana.

It was now very evident that New included the second of the Seventh initiatry district, which included in the State of Louisiana.

mapping out for himself, would be her place?
The remembrance of the last time he had seen her, with her girlish fare and form manifesting such shrinking terror of him, had its sorrow may light to be a support of him, had its sorrow may light to be a support of him, had its sorrow may light to be a support to himself in her estimation. The 'Black betrel,' keeping a sharp lookout for English vessels, stole into the Gulf of Mexico, and speed across it. Then, turning to the east and north. Latite made for the western shore of Grande Terre and the harbor of Brataria, where, in due time, the brigantine dropped anchor. It was the evening of Lafitte's arrival. He and Pierre were alone together, and, being mable to count upon unlimited/ privacy, they seated themselves for a full talk and comparison of notes.—Jesin to give Pierre the particulars of his recent that champenings at Barataria and New Orleans." I wish I might have been with you in Toulon." Pierre said, with what sounded like a sigh. "I have a longing to see France again before I die." "Before you talk thus? One would think you were three-score, at least, in stead of a stalwart giant of half playfully, half-derdingly.

half-deridingly.

There was no answering smile on Pierre's face, which was again turned to the fire. But after a momentary silence he said, abstractedly, as If thinking aloud. TI cannot give a good reason for it, but there has of late been something like a conviction growing upon me that I have not much longer to live. Perhaps"—and he raised his eyes to Jean's wondering face—"It is nothing more than that I am homesick."

"We will wind up our affairs here assert is nouns more than that is am homesick."

"We will wind up our affairs here and go to France," declared Jean de clairely. "Rouse thyseif. Pierre, and speak no more in such a fashlond What nonsense!—thou, and vercome together than the such a premoition! I believe that the such a premoition! I believe that the such a premoition! I believe that the such a graffied sparks to the other man's dyes, "that thou hast missed me."

"You know my secret, Pierre; for the present let it rest."

Offenns was to be attracked as soon as a country of the last time of seem her, with the refer is the feed of seem her. With the refer is the feed of seem her, with the refer is the feed of seem her, with the refer is the feed of seem her. With the refer is the feed of seem her with the refer is the feed of seem her. With the restination of the legislature, hesdes taking all other than the word of the feed of seem her with the restination. That I could know means for defense But the legislators in this power toward ratios, without the telling. Still it is pleas means for defense But the legislators and the same maleoutents whose scheming all the telling. Still it is pleas the same maleoutents whose scheming all the same maleoutents whose scheming all the same that we shall see the same to neutralize the governors effective the restination.

The restination of the same of the feet of same that the same maleoutents whose scheming all the same maleoutents whose scheming all the same that the sam leans that he is mad for love of the Spanish girl."

"And she?" inquired Jean carelessly, as he patted the head of a hound crouched by his chair.
Pickre shrugged his broad shoulders.
"She is a woman; who, therefore, may say what she thinks, or will door not do?"

may say shat she thinks, or will door not do?"

I was the she thinks, or will door not do?"

Thou hast a poor opinion of the fair ones, my lierre."

"Have 1? If so, it was thyself taught me the lesson."

The laughing face sobered at gase, and a troubled look came into the eyes fixed upon Pierre's half-mocking ones. "Say you, Pierre, that I taught you any such lesson."

"Aye, that you have, with your scorn of women and thoir ways. Seeing through your eyes, I long ago learned to look upon women as bit snares, to love whom brings mischef and the ruin of a man's heart."

Pierre wondered at the gentleness of the tone that answered. "If ever I taught, up and the standard and that love in a man's life is tike." He stopped short, and his dark face took a dreaming look as he gared into the fire.

After a short silence he continued.

"Thou art not away "

"Anary." The word was repeated with a soft laugh, as if the supposition were too absent to call for refutation.

"And she loves thee in return."

Phere ventured, encouraged by the

And she shallow as a the superstandard of the shallow and the chimney and looked down into the em-bers.

Pierre now rose and tossed his cigar into the fireplace, appearing to think there was nothing more to be said. But he turned quickly to Jean as the latter laying a hand upon his foster-brother's shoulder added, "You know my secret. Pierre; for the present let us to who she is. I may yet with her; and I may rot. If I do then you shall know her and you will love her, of that I feed assured.

"Well you may, my Jean, if she ly."

Louisians were using all possible means to neutralize the governor's of forts.

As Lattite listened to all this be concravitated himself anew that the Huck Pettel' has anchored safely before Grande Terro. He fort also that petters for making the order has been provided in the property of the provided for a part of the provided for all past misdeeds whether actual or alleased.

When he voiced these thoughts and plants to Pierre, the latter agreed unreservedly, and both men were confident of their ability to obtain the adjunction of the provided for all past misdeeds whether actual or reservedly, and both men were confident of their ability to obtain the adjunction of their districts. But think you, Jean. 'Inquired the more cautious Pierre, 'There is not reason to doubt if Gov Claiborne accept our offer.' I do not wish to dampe en thy arroit, but we must remember the hirests he has made against the provided for t

Illinois Legislature

COMERFORD CASE.

Frank D. Comerford, the expelled and reelected member of the forty-fourth general assembly from the second senatorial district of Cook country. The second senatorial district of the cook senatorial district of the present assembly there will be trouble on the floor of the house.

"I understand," said Comerford, "that I am not to be recognized by the speaker when I am sworn in. I will insist upon my rights. If I am both the second senatorial to the second senatorial sen

DRAINAGE DEADLOCK UNBROKEN
The deadlock between the house and senate committees on the drainage bills continues unbroken in spite of the fact that Representative Kleeman called his house committee together.
Ricoman has Senator lina's bill sublabling cumulative voting for sanjuary man's bill resultantage board to make blennial remains
bell resultantage
board to the senate blennial remains
bell resultantage
board to make blennial remains
bell resultantage
board to make blennial remains
bell resultantage
board to make blennial remains
bell resultantage
board to day not blennia with equal comphasis that Haas' bill shall not see the light of day until his bill gets out of the senate committee. Between the two affirmatives both bills are likely to be lost unless some means of simultaneous action for both committees be linvented.

Calls insurance Rates High. DRAINAGE DEADLOCK UNBROKEN

adition in the control of the contro

Marriage License Fees.
Out of pity for the matrimonially inclined the house amended the senate bill revising the fee charges in the public offices of Cook county, so that a marriage license will continue to cost $1.50 and will not be raised to $2. The bill passed the senate providing for the doubling of the marriage chief the framers of the measurement of the matrix of the charge for matrimony in Cook, county. Market values didn't warrant the increase.

to charge for martimony in Cook county. Macket values dded; warrant the increase.

Peter B. Olson, who has been working for the advancement of the bills for county commissioners, said that persons not in affluent circumstances frequently wanted to get married and that 13 was too high a price for them to pay for a license.

With this and a couple of other amendments the house advanced the Cook county fee bills to a third reading, Mr. Olson estimated that the increase in fees provided for will give Cook county $25,000 additional revenue, independent of court fees.

School Bill Protest.
Roman Catholic church officials, parochial school officers and church societies are protesting vigoroually against the school bills now under con-

Work Without Querum.
The senate was not in session Theaday, and while the house held morning and afternoon meetings, there was not a quorum present at either session, and great care had to be exercised to prevent this coming to the official knowledge of the body.

Civil Service for Doctors.

The house advanced to third reading the senate bill placing all physicians, surgeons, and internes of Cook county hospital under civil service.

sideration, including a bill allowing the consolidation of school districts to secure larger schools; and provid-ing for free transportation of school children. The church people assert that the free conveyance measure will raise taxation and, place additional burden on tappayers who send their children to parochial schools and de-trive no benedits from the free school system. Some of the protests come from the Catholic Knights of Amer-lea.

rom the Catholic Relights of America.

Sherman's Primary Bill.

The primary election bill upon which Lieuteant Governor Sherman is at work is designed to meet some suggestions which were made during the discussion of the house bill in the senate committee, and, while it does not meet the views of the lieutenant governor on the primary election question, he will submit it as a postimation and the state of the provision to the effect that plurality nominations may be made without the injuremental of a delegate convention in the event delegate convention in the event delegate convention in the event delegates are elected under instructions the same rule shall apply. In other words, the bill will recognize the plurality nomination, but will lasting that in all cases the candidate must attend have a third of the votes cast.

Fulle for Compression with the committee on rules, laff before, the house a new rule of procedure in such cases as that presented by F. D. Comerford, providing for reference to the committee on rules, laff before, the house a new rule of procedure in such cases as that presented by F. D. Comerford, providing for reference to the committee of rules. All before the house a new rule of procedure in such cases as that presented by F. D. Comerford, providing for reference to the committee of rules. All the cases the case of election presented after after the organization of the house. This rule was adopted, and, acting on it, the speaker afterwards appointed a committee confidence for any Mitchell, to the committee returns his certificate. Concertor of the committee returns his certificate, and its report.

Rochange in Salary Bill.

Rochange in Salary Bill.

No Change in Salary Bill.

Representative Sheen endeavored to get an amendment to Erickson's bill raising the salaries of members of the logislature, but without success. He wanted to have the salary remain as at present, $1,000, instead of being increased to $2,000, but to allow members transportation at regular railroad rates to and from their homes once a week. This amendment was defeated and then the prohibition member endeavored to have the house strike out the provision for the payment of 10 cents a mile for one telp. This also was defeated and the bill went to a third reading.

bird reading.

Push Anti-Loan-Shark Bill.

Senator Dixon's anti-loan-shark bill, which has prised the senate, made its appearance in the house at the short sestion of that body Monday, and was advanced to second reading. It was stated by Mr. Webster, who called up the bill, that members of the committees of both houses had conferred on the bill, and it is believed this legislation in the form it passed the senate will become a law. The bill makes vold all assignments of wages executed by married men unless the wife has joined in the assignment and also makes vold all assignments tainted with usury.

Charter Legislation.

The Chicago charter situation is illuminated by promise of action on the municipal courts bill. Representative Pendarvis believes that the senate and house committees can get together this week and have the bill ready for action in both houses by the first of next week. The bill passed by the senate will be amended in some particularly if this proposition goes through, affic as amended will be the measure to become a law.

Corporation Suits.

Mr. Hearn's bill amending the present anti-trust act by requiring ten days' notice by the state a strong of suit against a corporation for not mine admission suit security of the suit and the suit of th

Advance Bills.

Two other bills of more than passing interest were advanced on the house calendar. They were Mr. Bush's bill requiring sherifs to raid poolrooms and Mr. Hearn's bill fixing the rates of sleeping car berths.

Sanitarium Measure.
Mr. Glackin's bill carrying an appropriation of $50,000 for the establishment of a state sanitarium for the treatment of persons afflicted with tuberculosis was called up by Mr. Trautmann and read the first time.

Safety Appliance Sill.
Railroad bills providing for the equipment of cars with safety appliances, appointing a state inspector of safety appliances, and providing for full crews on all frains were advanced to a third reading in the house.

Society of Equity Meeting.
The Clinton county unions of the American Society of Equity will hold a mass meeting in the courthouse in Carlyle April 28. The principal speaker will be C. O. Drayton of Greenvilla.

ALL BROKEN DOWN.

-No Appetite-J

Joseph McCauley, of 144 Sholte treet, Chicago, Sachem of Tecumseh odge, says: "Two years ago my

No More of Herculaneum.

Ne More of Herculansum.

The proposed formation of an international organization to conduct extensive excavations at International organization in conduct extensive excavations at Impractical and the extensive excavations at Impractical and the extensive of the

BABY'S AWFUL ECZEMA.

BADY'S AWFUL ECZEMA

Face Like Raw Beef—Thought She Would Lose Her Ean-Healed
Without a Blemish—Mothwithout a Blemish—Mothin Thanke Cuticura.

Mr It Thanke Cuticura.

Mr It Thanke Cuticura.

It had turned black, and her face was like a piece of raw meat, and very sore. It would bleed when I washed her, and I had to keep cloths on it day and night. There was not a clear spot on her face when I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and now it is completely healed, without scar or blemish, which is more than I had hoped for. (Signed) Mrs. Rose Ether, 211 Eckford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.**

Blussatockine Fond of Awef

hoped for. (Signed) Mrs. Rose Ether, 201 Eckford'st. Brookby, N. Y.**

Bilestocking Fond of Gayett, Miss Salie Heath White Carroll, an Baitimore bell and one of the Carrolls of Carrollston, graduated fright the New York university law-school a few days ago in brilliant style and will begin the practice of her profession there shortly. As a child she had the run of the finest law libraries in America, collected by generations of Casrolls, for which her father refused an rolls, for which her father refused an rolls, for which her father refused an rolls of the finest law libraries in the law stocking, but a society girl who likes dancing as heartily as every healthy young woman must, and refuses to become poky merely because she is learned.

Preventive of influenza.

In the year 1890, when influenza, was epidemic throughout Europe, many workmen contracted the disease in three watch factories at Madretsch, Germany, and a number died. At one factory at Madretsch, bowever, the disease did not appear. Investigations showed that oil of turpentine was used in the turning of the metals used for watcheases. The oil became warm and evaporated and the workmen lahaied the air laden with it. This seemed to protect them against the disease. Since then oil of turpentine has been always evaporated fit that factory upon a sive with on a case of influenza has ever occurred there.

HONEST CONFESSION.

MONEST CONFESSION.

A Doctor's Talk on Food.

There are no faiter set of men or earth than the doctors, and when they find they have been in error they are usually apt to make honest and manyly confession of the fact.

A case in point is that of an emply confession of the fact.

A case in point is that of an emply confession of the fact.

A case in point is that of an emply confession of the fact of