Greek Words.

It is not to be denied, observes a discerning critic, that science is tending, more than anything else, if not to the degradation, at leastisto the "Greetification," of the language, it began with such comparatively harmicroscope." The intention was good, it was to admit into the language no words which could not show an honorable pedigree. So science proceeds, whenever it wants a new word, to ring another change on a certain limited number of Greek roots, which must, sooner or later, give out. Some day all the possible permutations of "rele" and "phono" and "scope" will be exhausted, and science will be confronted with a new and baffing exil have devised some machine so complicated, uniting the ideas of electricity, light, sound, size, distance, writing and section, that the long-suffering public will rise in revolt against the electrophotophonomegatelegrapho-scope.

MARLOWE crung for the Nerves

"I am glad to write my endorse-ment of the great remedy, Peruna, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartly."—Julia Marlowe.

Nervousness is very common among women. This condition is due to meanin caree centers. The nervo ritality. These centers become blood less for want of proper nutrition.

This is especially true in the spring acason. Every spring a host of invalids are produced as the direct result of weak nervo.

This can be easily obviated by us Peruna. Peruna strikes at the root the difficulty by correcting the dig non.

Digestion furnishes nutrition for the nerve centers. Properly digested food furnishes these reservoirs of life with vitality which leads to strong, atomly nerves and thus nourishes life. Peruna is in great favor among women, especially those who have voor-tions that are trying to the nerves.

Buy a bottle of Peruna to-day If you do not receive all the befield from Peruna that you expected write to Dr. S. B. Hartman, Colum-bus, Ohlo.
