"Persistent Begging"
To the Editory assess that some girl, young or aged woman is not making a tour of the village soliciting aid for some church or society, foreign mission, or something else. I presume the effort is legitimate but the solicitors are altegether too strenuous, and the public is getting tired of such persistent begging. The result is that those outside the church are paying a large share toward planos, returnishing church edifices, pastor's salary, expenses which, it would seem, ought to be met by those receiving the benefits of the church.

Those who form the church membership; those who are regarded as the elect certainty ought to reach down deep in their pockets to meet church expenses and if they find such benefits

Saved by Dynamite.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calbion, Ga., writes. "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her."
