Rev. Father Wolfe pronounced the beautiful marriage ceremony of the Catholic faith which bound together the hearts and future lives of Miss Marguerite E. Davlin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davlin of Cuba township, and Edward T. Martin, one of the best known and most popular young men of Barrington.

The ceremony was witnessed by only relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties.

Following the service the wedded pair and relatives repaired to the Davlin home where congratulations were extended and wedding luncheon partaken of. They will be "at home" after August 1st, in the pretty and most completely furnished cottage corner of Liberty and North Hawley streets, Barrington.

The bride is a young lady of intrinsic worth and all the qualifications to grace and preside over a home. She possesses those accomplishments so necessary in a helpmate for the bustling young man with which she has united to travel the walks of life.

$40,000 FOR INJURIES

Miss Carrie Lohman Sues the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company

Miss Carrie Lohman has filed a suit against the C. & N. W. Railway for a large sum in the Kane county circuit court. The suit is the result of an accident which befell the young lady at Algonquin station, March 16, and rendered her a cripple for life.

Miss Lohman undertook to alight from a coach just as the train was pulling out of Algonquin station. It is alleged that Conductor Benjamin caught hold of Miss Lohman in such manner as to turn her about and cause her to be rolled onto the tracks and dragged under the wheels injuring her limb so badly that amputation of the foot and ankle was necessary.

Miss Lohman asks that the company pay her the sum of $40,000. Her interests will be looked after by Gemmill & Foel of Chicago, and Gannon & Burkhardt of Aurora.

PROJECT REJECTED

Board of Supervisors of Lake County Vote Against Hospital Proposition

Supervisors of Lake County are very much opposed to the erection of a building by the county to be used as a hospital. Every member of the board was ready and anxious to "knock" the project except Chairman Miller of Libertyville. The main cause for opposition to the plan is said to be the cost of maintaining such an institution.

The plan was to erect a building at the county farm to be used for hospital purposes for the care of sick and injured from the various towns who are supported by the towns or need county aid. The plans called for an expenditure of $7,000 to $10,000 for a building; the cost of maintaining the same would be about $4,000 a year.

The contention of some members of the board is that under the present plan of towns sending their patients to hospitals at Chicago, or McAllister hospital Wauconda, enables them to care for those charges at less cost than with a separate building at Libertyville or elsewhere.

The hospital must be erected somewhere because the increase in the number of county charges requiring treatment will make such an institution a necessity.

Gone to Panama.

Walter Lageschulte who, some months ago accepted a position in the U. S. treasury department at Washington, has accepted a position with the Government Panama commission, and on the 12th inst. embarked for New York for the Isthmus.

Walter will make the best of the advantages offered in that Latin-American country, and there is no doubt but what he will prove successful. His parents were very much opposed to his going there, mainly on account of the climate.

Has Resumed Work

I am pleased to announce that I am now able to resume work in my barber shop and will be pleased to see my former patrons as well as new ones.

Eugene Sullivan, of Chicago, ex-Cook county constable, is prosecuting a collection business in this section with vigor. M. C. McIntosh's name appears on Sullivan's business card as attorney. This makes the firm a strong one in the local field.

When you see a man eating onions on Sunday make up your mind to one of three things. He is either an outcast from society, married and not afraid of his wife or he has an immortal clench on the love of the girl he is going to see in the evening.

Eiselein of the Northwestern University will preach Sunday morning at 10:30, and will give a special educational address in the evening at 7:30. The members of the high school and the teachers of the public school are especially invited to the evening service. Everybody is most cordially welcome to both of these services.

Monday night a crowd of young people to the number of fifty, enjoyed a hay rack ride to the home of John Thies in Palatine township. The affair was gotten up by Charles and Edward Thies of this village, who thus planned to observe the birthday of their sister-in-law. The festivities at the home lasted until an early hour Tuesday, and heartily enjoyed. Mrs. Thies was the recipient of a pretty rocker as a souvenir of the occasion.

Wednesday afternoon the weather was torrid. We noticed a great big lubber of a man stretched out in a hammock hung on a porch protected by screen. This lord of creation was evidently taking life easy. Out in the garden his wife was endeavoring to destroy the crop of weeds which threatened to over run the place. Some men are too lazy to exercise except at meal time.

The men who harm a town may be found among those who oppose improvements, those who don't advertise, those who distrust public men, those who run it down to strangers, those who hate to see others make money, those who treat every stranger as an interloper, those who ask two prices for property, those who put on long faces when a stranger talks of locating, those who oppose every public enterprise that does not appear to be a personal benefit to themselves.

A New York Judge has ruled upon the question of title, that is the proper address of name to be used by a woman after she marries. His decision interferes with the custom so generally used by club women in this village. This judge holds that if Miss Mary Roxani Jones marries Thomas H. Smith that she also accepts his name and should be known and addressed as Mrs. Thomas H. Smith and not as Mrs. Mary Jones Smith. He contends that if a woman is ashamed of her husband's name that she is not entitled to his support. He claims that the title Mary Roxani Jones Smith does not signify that the lady is or ever has been a married woman. The judge condemns the custom as a fad and one which should not be countenanced.

BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE

Paid to Departed Odd Fellows by Brethren and Rebekahs.

Sunday morning June 11 came with threatening clouds and heavy mists. The rains of Friday and Saturday had drenched the earth, roads and streets were in poor condition for travel and prospects for the proper observance of Odd Fellows' Memorial day was anything but pleasing.

At ten o'clock members of the three links and sisters of the Rebekah degree assembled at their hall and held a service for the departed. The service was most ably given and highly appreciated by members of the order and audience who listened to it.

Musical numbers were rendered by the Four S. quartette, Miss Beulah Otis presiding at organ and piano.

In the afternoon the lodges assembled at their hall, where memorial service for the departed was held according to the ritual, the Harrington band furnishing dirges.

At the conclusion of this ceremony procession was formed, headed by the Harrington band, officers of Rebekah lodge given the post of honor, members from Palatine lodge and a large delegation of local Odd Fellows, making an imposing column which moved to Evergreen cemetery, where beautiful and impressive ceremonies were enacted at the grave of Bro. Emil Naehrer. The narrow bed of the loved one was covered with a wealth of floral offerings, words of tribute paid by Noble Grand and Chaplain.

Brother A. J. Redmond, of Oak Park, then gave utterance to one of the most eloquent and beautifully blended memorial orations ever uttered in that sacred spot. He outlined the principles of the great order of Odd Fellowship in a convincing manner, calling attention to its objects, pointing to the ceremonies which marked the occasion, to the tribute bestowed upon its departed brothers, to the bonds which cemented so solidly the organization whose influence had spread into every portion of the civilized world, whose membership was the greatest in the history of secret organizations of this and other countries, whose foundation stone was God's word; whose teachings those of the Great Samaritan; whose followers were bound together by the golden links of friendship, love and truth.

The sun in all its glory painted the beautiful resting spot of our sacred dead, as the impressive ceremonies closed.

The procession reformed and returned to the hall, where the program of the day was ended.

Early Settlers' Reunion.

The annual reunion of the early settlers of the Fox River valley will be held in Lord's Park, Elgin, Saturday June 17. As heretofore, a basket picnic will be held in the afternoon. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the meeting will be called to order, at which time an address will be delivered by some prominent early settler of the Fox River valley. The afternoon will be devoted to sociability and the renewing of old acquaintances.

A good caterer will be present to furnish refreshments to those not supplied.

Bushels of fun will be distributed at Harrington July 4th. You cannot afford to miss it.

The ladies of the Thursday club met at the home of Mrs. Clark Aberson yesterday afternoon. Beautiful flowers of June again added to the pleasant surroundings. A short literary and musical program was given by the club members. The rest of the afternoon was spent in a social time planned by the hostess, which proved so pleasant and amusing that the ladies, one and all, pronounced Mrs. Aberson a most proficient entertainer. A dainty lunch was then served. The ladies will meet with Mrs. Ryan next week.
