TELLS HOW WIFE WAS KILLED

Story of the Crandon Tragedy, as Told by Husband, Points to Acci-dental Discharge of Revolver in Hands of the Victim.

Applejon, Wis, Sept. 7.—The temporary injunction restraining the coroner's Jury from further investigating the death of Mrs. James A. Walsh of Crandon, wife of the district attorney of Forest county, was dissolved here Wedneday afteraoon by Judge Goodland, who declared that inamuch as the coroner's inquest was not a court of record and could not convict he was powerless to interfere. Attorneys for Walsh declared that members of the present coroner's jury were prejudiced for political reasons against the defendant and that they were positive, having affidavits to prove their assertions, that a fair verdict could not be obtained. The inquest will be resumed with the present jury.
