The city is crowded with thousands of refugees from the surrounding districts.

The Moroccan authorities admit their inability to protect lives and property of foreigners except within the walls of the city.

the walls of the city.

The rebel tribemen are the Angeras and they number several thousand well armed, mounted men.

Villages Ars Raided.

Villages Ars Raided the Angeras raided three villages under Raisell sauthority near Tangter, driving portion of which was the and sheep portion of which was the of Europeans. Raisull collected a band hos followers and started in pursuit, and in several skirmishes that saused several men, on both sides were killed or wounded.

At the same time the rebels burned.

Raisul's mother was taken prisoners, and her fate is not known.

Sultan Bends Troop
Couriers were at once dispatched to Fes with intelligence of the uprising and the sultan was urged to send troops to put down the rebellion.
The troops sarrived, having been seried fighting.

The danger in the situation lies in the fact that the sultan's troops refuse to assist Raisuli in his efforts to defeat the rebels. It is claimed that the sultan has dismissed Raisuli, whom he' recently appointed governor of the roads between Tangier and Fez.

It is believed that the English and French governments will send warships to Tangier at once.

TWO ROADS ABSORB THE THIRD

Illinois Central, it is Said, Gains an Entrance to Nashville, Nashville, Nashville, Tenn, dispatch: According to what is considered good autority, the Illinois Central and the Southern railways are to take over the Tennessee Central railroad, dividing the line at Nashville and giving these two roads an entry to the city. It is understood the Tennessee Central is acquired under a ninety-nine-year lease. Under the provisions of the deal it is said the Illinois Central gets that portion of the road between Nashville and Hopkinsville, Ky., eightydre miles. The Southern is to operate the eastern division of the main line from Harriman Junction, 165 mils, as well as forty-seven miles of branch lines.

Cure to Stay Cured.

Wapello, lows, Sept. 11th (Special)
—One of the most remarkable cures ever recorded in Louisa County is that of Mrs. Minnie Hart of this place.

Mrs. Hart was in bed for eight months and when she was to one side and could not walk across the room. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me after I was in bed for eight months and of the months and I know the cure was complete for that was three years ago and I have not been down since. In four weeks from the time I started taking them I was able to make my garden. No be cured or how much I feel I owe to Dodd's Kidney Pills.
