A match race is the feature of Saturday afteration, March 4th. "Lord Clayton." B. S. Hammond's pacer will be pitted against Jas. Hanlon's "King Hi," of Libertyville, "for 850 a side. Both horses are speedy pacers, marking about 2215 and are about the same age, and should put up the best race ever witnessed in our vicinity. Eren though "Senator G.," Earl Merritt's trotter took every heat from "Guy" Harry Geary's pacer, last Saturday, the Judges gave the latter horse the victory on the grounds that the trotter ran more than allowable, without an effort on the part of the driver, Norman Ladd, to make him trot. Public opinion is divided.

Retired From Mercantile Business

Retired From Mercantile Business
After thirty-six years of active life in the conduct of a general merchandise busines in Barrington, Leroy Powers has disposed of his establishment to P. A. Hawley who took possession Monday morning. Mr. Hawley will conduct the business on the lines laid down by Mr. Powers which has attracted if large share of the trade to the store.

Mr. Powers engaged in the business at the present location in 1890 as a partner of H. G. Willmarth. In 1881 he purchased Mr. Willmarth. In 1881 he purchased Mr. Willmarths interest and since then has conducted the business. He has always served a large trade and one of the best known and highly respected business men in this section of the state. He will be missed from the "old store" by a host of citizens who were wont to visit there and enjoy Leroy's pleasant, and entertaining companionship. The Reentertaining companionship. The Re-view wishes him many years of enjoy ment from the competence so wel earned.

P. A. Hawley needs no introduction to Bagringtonians—everybody has the pleasure of his acquaintance. We wish him a successful business career.

John Catlow, One of the Oldest of Barrington's Citizens, is Dead at Age of 82 -Years.

Another familiar figure to every inhabitant of larrington and vicinity has passed to his long rest. He had lived more than the years allotted to man and fulfilled his mission and was ready for the summons which came Thursday evening, March 2, at 7:45 oclock.

John Catlow was born at Burnley.

Advertising Patent Medicines
During the past two weeks an arty vance brigade of doctors, accompanied by a company of vauderille artists, have held fort at Odd Fellow's hall in this village advertising the remedies manufactured by the company for vauderille artists, and the manufactured by the Collection of the manufactured by the Collection of the manufactured by the Genam Medicine Co., of Clincinnatt, Ohio. The gentlemen composing the advertising company have demonstrated the current of the collection of the collection in a manner so far different from the majority of traveling devertising companies, as to entitle them to commendation from the people.

The sketchi artists have presented, their specialties in a pleasing manner, the musical selections good and moving pictures entertaining to the large audience's who have attended. The people are reflued, most gentlemanly in private and public conduct and pay well for every necessity or acommodation. While such methods, of advertising medicines, and traveling doetising medicines, and traveling doc-tors or dentists may be regarded as usurping the rights of local dealers
