San Francisco, April 20.—Thousands upon thousands of people are fleeing from the fire. They fer footing to the terries, to the paris, to the military reservation and to the suburbs. Residents of the hillsides in the central portion of the city Thursday seemingly were safe from the roaring firance that was consuming the business section. They watched the towering mounds of flames and appeculated as to the extent of the territory that was doomed.

as to the extent of the territory that was doomed.

Buddenly there was whispered alarm up and down the long line of watchers and they hurried away to drag elothing cooking utensils and scant provisions through the streets. From contrast swenter the procession moved westward. Men and women dragged bottom of provisions, everything. Wagnons could into the hired except by paying the most exteriorate rates. But there was no panic. The poople were calm, stunned. They seem not to realize the extent of the calamity. They have that the city is destroyed in so far as business plants are concerned; they fell each other in the most natural tone tint their residences were destroyed by the flame, but

The Presidio reservation, the vast Richmond district of thousands of acres, Golden Gate park and the surrounding hills, resemble one was pic-nic grounds. Tents and improvised coverings have theen erected everywhere, fireplaces built in the streets, beds and mattresses thrown down all over the section. The people thus situated are philosophical.

There is only on-danger, and that is that the food supply will run out. Every, grocsey is gan Prancisco has been taken by the authorities and egoh smilly is being sold only one article at a time. In many places the police and military prohibit overcharging. Gen. Plunston announced Thurstay morning that rations would soon reach the city and then the poople will, be supplied from the Presidio. Bakerles have already seen built within the reservation, and the bread supply therefore has not failed completely.

Ad People to Flee.

The government also has begun to aid, in the progress of the people out of the city to Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. Tugboats and asamers are being pressed linto service for this purposs, and there is a vast army on.

From the year front the burned city can be seen to-day in all its smoky nakedness.

From the Pacific Mail dock to Valle-jo attrest, on the west side, a distance of two miles, wreckage and ruin is the rule. Although the fire did not jump East street, the damage has been enormous. The filled-in land facing the ferry building is a succession of little valleys, some four, others siz feet deep. The ferry tower litself is ont of pigmb, and the big building is badly revisited by the sarrhipanks.
