"I am neither ultra-conservative, nor yet a Robert Ingersoll, and I wish to emphatically deapy the report," declared Bishop Williams. "I did say that a certain view of the Bible is a most prolife source of unbellef. To say that the Bible is the most prolife source of unbellef would be the rank-est kind of a Robert Ingersoll. The Bible must be read thoughtfully and meditatively, and a man with a conscience will find the word of God in it."
