The immigrant train was the second section of the regular express, and the first section did not carry any signal to indicate that the second section was following. The freight train pulled out on the main track and met the immigrant train on a curve. Engineers and fremen saved themselves by jumping, though the engineer on the passenger was badly scaled by escaping steam. The passengers were asleep when the accident occurred, and many were killed while they slept.

A PUBLIC DUTY.

Joseph Wilgus, Montpeller, O., says:
"I feel it my duty to tell others about Doan's Kidney Pills. Exposure and driving brought kidney trouble on me, and I suffered much from irregular passages of the kidney secretions. Sometimes and at other times passages were too frequent. especially at night. There was pain and discoloration. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief from the first, and soon infused new life. I give them my indorsement.
