The Odd Fellows at their regula The Odd Fellows at their regular meeting last night had three vistors that are distinguished men in Odd Fellow circles. They were Messrs. Conroy, Missouri; Wood, P. N. G., of Judiana; Strling, P. N. G., of Col-orado. They are men who have seen "the work" done in almost every state of the Union.

On the 31st of January the Odd Fellows will present to the public Newton Beers, who will give an inter-esting monologue, "David and Jona-Newton Beers, who will give an inter-esting monologue, "David and Jona-than," It is a play of three acts and is fraternal in its teaching. Tais rare opportunity is one that should not be missed by no one. It comes highly recommended from the best and big-gest ledges in the country.
