Swift & Company

The total distributive sales for 1905

This total is realized from the sale f fresh meats (beef, mutton and pork), provisions, produce (poultry, butter and eggs), soaps, glues, oils, bones, fortilizers, feathers, casings, hides, wools, pelts and other by-prod-ucts derived from cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry.

The industry is operated on a mar-gin of less than 2 cents to each dol-lar of sales. Swift & Co. do not sell at retail. Their entire output is sold at wholesale to many thousands of dealers in various parts of the world. There are hundreds of local slaughterers throughout the United States, who buy their live stock in competi-tion with the packer doing an interstate and international business. Likewise the packer must sell in compe-tition with the local slaughterers. There are no secret processes in the Industry, no complicated and evnen industry, no complicated and expen-sive factories, and as lire stock can be purchased in almost every hamlet and city, and the preparation of meats is simple in the extreme, local slaughtering will long remain a fac-tor in the production of fresh meats

The large packing houses will, how-ever, always have these advantages: Locations at the chief live stock centers, with the opportunity to buy the best live stock; manufacturing in large quantities, at the minimum of expense; utilization of all waste material; refrigeration; mechanical appliances; highly efficient business man-agement. These advantages are re-flected in the quality of the packer's output, a quality that has reached its highest development in the products bearing the name and brand of "Swift."

Purchasing Live Stock. The principal live stock centers are The following gives the locations hicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. and sizes of the different plants;

Louis, St. Joseph, St. Paul and Fort Worth. The same methods of pur-chasing cattle, sheep and hogs prevail at all cities. At Chicago, which is the largest market, there are about two hundred and fifty buyers, representing packers, local slaughterers in various cities and exporters. Of this number, less than a score are employed by Swift & Company. The farmer ships his live stock to Chicago, consigns them to a commis-sion firm at the Union Stock Yards, who sees that they are unloaded and put in pens. Then the buyers inspect them, make their offers to the commission dealer, who accepts or rejects as his judgment dictates. All buying must be finished at 3 o'clock each day, and the buyer must pay spot cash.

If the commission man has no satisfactory offers, he can hold his stock over to the next day. He gets his ion from the farmer, and naturally strives to get the highest pos-sible price for his client.

Wholesale Distributing He A wholesale distributing house is a giant refrigerator, but instead of shelves there are trolley rails, from which are suspended hooks to hang the carcasses. Some of the houses cost as much as a hundred thousand dollars to build and equip. As a rule they are of pressed brick, the insides being lined-floor, walls and ceiling-with highly polished hardwood. The floors are covered daily with fresh sawdust, and all are kept spotlessly clean. There are over three hundred of these wholesale houses in various cities of the United States, and the public is always welcome to visit

Packing Plants.

All the Swift & Company plants are cated at the great live stock mar located at the great live stock mar-kets, in the heart of the great agri-cultural sections, where can be pur-chased the finest grades of cattle, sheep and hogs. We have seven pack-ing plants, employing at each from two to eight thousand persons.

Employes,

The total number of persons em ployed in all the Swift packing plants and branch houses aggregate over 26,000 persons. Conditions for employes in the various manufacturing and operating departments is contin-ually improving with the construction of new buildings and the installation of new and un-to-date couloment. Sanitation and Hygiene.

The housewife makes no greater ef-for to keep her kitchen clean than we do to keep in sanitary and hygienic condition our abattoirs. They are thoroughly scrubbed at the close of each day's operations, and automatic appliances are used wherever possi-ble in order to eliminate the personal handling of meats. Rigid rules governing these points are strictly en-forced; laxity means dismissal.

Visitors Always Welcome. No other industry in the world No other industry in the world gives such a cordial welcome to visit-ors as Swift & Co. We keep open house the year around, and maintain a corps of specially trained guides, with special elevators and rest rooms. In one year we have entertained over a quarter of a million of men and women; in one day—Grand Army Day, 1901—we entertained 23,000. Among our visitors have been ambassadors from foreign governments, princes, noblemen and distinguished citizens from all lands and eminent folks from every state in the Union. We wish to familiarize the public with our methods, and the best was to do that is to let the public see fo itself. We have no secret processe or methods in any department.

Swift's Premium Hams and Bacon, Swift's Premium Hams and Bacon are more widely and favorably known ity is due to the uniform quality and flavor of the meat, and to their fine appearance when received from the dealer. Each piece is branded on the dealer. Each piece is branded on the rind, "Swift's Premium U. S. Inspect-ed," and wrapped in cheesecloth and white parchment paper. Look for the brand, "Swift's Premi-ium," when buying hams and bacon.
