THE HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

Pupils of the Barrington High School Entertain a Large Audience
With an Exceptionally Fine Entertainment on Friday Evening of Last Week.

Standing room was at a premium at the entertainment given in assembly room of the new school house Friday evening of last week by the pupils of the high school.

Three farces were given, entitled "I Dink So," "Too Much of a Good Thing," each one act, and "Truth Crushed to Earth," in three acts.

Space will not permit us to call attention to each and every character to the extent to which they are entitled, but in "I Dink So," Messrs. Piagge, Gieske and Froelich made a decided hit.

In "Too Much of a Good Thing," Miss Powers, Landover and Riley and Messrs. Gieske, Powers and Gieske did so well, porting the trials and tribulations of an Irishman just landed in New York that the audience was kept roaring with laughter from beginning to end.

The third play, "Truth Crushed to Earth," proved most novel in more ways than one. Probably the biggest hit, however, was made in the impersonation of "The Witch" by Ira Effink and "Rosalee" by Lovell Bennett. Even the actors were handled in such a way that the sex was not betrayed. Messrs. Will Grinnell, Vera Hawley, Elmer Gieske, Charles Bohmer, C. Simmons, George Walker, George Froelich, L. Alverson, Ira Banks, Harry Graham, Fred Grinnell, Arthur Bohmer and Walter Cassin did exceptionally well.

The scene was laid in Florence, and there were trees which looked real, attendants, etc., etc.

Another feature of the show which deserves special mention was the music furnished by the "celebrated Zola Orchestra," under the direction of Miss Riley. This band was composed of the following:

"I Dink So."
CHARACTERS.
Inventor of the Elitix of Life..... Dr. Gerardo Piagge
An Aspiring Medical Student..... Johan Wilhelm von Siegel Gieske
A Sick Irishman..... Patrick Mulholland Froelich

"Too Much of a Good Thing"
CHARACTERS.
Looking for Gold Eagles..... P. O'Brien V. Collins
Looking for Her Husband..... Miss A. O'Brien Powers
Looking for Two Dollars..... E. R. O'Faherty Powers
Looking for Katy's Beauty..... Mrs. L. O'Brien Landover
Looking for Her Pat..... Miss Billy Mulligan Riley
Not Looking for Anything..... Alphonse Moriarty Gieske

"Truth Crushed to Earth."
CHARACTERS.
Albert, Duke of Florence..... W. Electricity Grinnell
Mundley, Chancellor of Ducal Exchequer..... Alexander Muscles Hawley
Laudoy, Senator of Ducal Palace..... E. Elephantus Gieske
Stephans, Captain of the Ducal Guard..... C. Birdie Bohmer
Julian, Generalissimo of the Florentine Invincible..... G. G. Gieske
In his monologue on "Harriet and Jonathan" Mr. Beers is a veteran actor and as an impersonator is inflexible. Possessed of a modicum of confidence and a flexible voice, he easily shifts from one character to another. His elocutionary work is sympathetic and impressive. The entertainment that he gives is wholesome. It is instructive, dramatic and pleasing. The large audience Wednesday evening was very highly entertained and was well pleased with Mr. Beers' artistic efforts.

V. N. C. A. NOTES.

Last Sunday afternoon meeting was by far the best attended one of the year, about 50 men being present.

Mr. Miller, the evangelist, spoke on the subject of "Backsliding," using for his illustration the devotion of Moses when he chose "rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season." Daniel also was spoken of to demonstrate a particularly desirable species of backsliding.

Then in contrast was used the example of King Belshezar, whose sin was evil rather than good and suffered in consequence.

These Sunday afternoon meetings are becoming more and more popular. Next Sunday in addition to Mr. Miller, Homer P. Wilson of Chicago, a colored man, is expected to be present.

Mr. Wilson was born in slavery, but has called himself to a high standard of manhood, having at one time been a politician of some prominence among his people. He is at present a business man at Glenview, a business man with a message, and all men should make it a point to come out to hear him.

The gymnasium equipment has been installed and is affording a world of enjoyment to the members of the Association.

A vaulting horse, trapeze, swinging rings, parallel bars, and punching bag, each contributes its share.

Notice.
Notice is hereby given that a meeting will be held at the office of THE BARRINGTON REVIEW, Barrington, Ill., on Wednesday evening, February 2nd, 1906, at 7:30 o'clock, to take action on disposing of the surplus remaining in the hands of the treasurer of the Farmer's Institute. All persons interested are requested to be present.

H. H. Spurr, President.
MILLS LAMBY, Secretary.

TO OPEN ANOTHER STORE

A. W. Meyer Will Start Branch
April 1st at Lake Zurich.

On April 1st A. W. Meyer, of The Big Store, will open a general merchandise store at Lake Zurich.

The building now occupied by Kohl Bros. will be overhauled and repaired to meet the requirements of Mr. Meyer. The stock will be all new and will be complete in every department.

Persistent rumors to the effect that A. W. Meyer was to start a store at Lake Zurich prompted a Review reporter to call at The Big Store and interview Mr. Meyer. He said:

"Yes, I have decided to open a general merchandise store at Lake Zurich. I have many customers in that section, and this store will benefit them, besides getting me new friends. I hope, I intend to remodel the building now occupied by Kohl Bros., and expect to open the store April 1st."

The Revival Meetings.
Revival meetings at the Salem and Methodist churches are still in progress and are well attended. Rev. Koten of Chicago is assisting Rev. Sturge at the Zion church, while Rev. Lady of Joliet is still at the Salem church, and Evangelist Miller is at the Methodist church.

Newton Beers in Impersonations.
I. O. O. F. hall was crowded Wednesday evening when Barrington Lodge No. 856 presented the gifted elocutionist, Newton Beers, in his monologue on "Harriet and Jonathan." Mr. Beers is a veteran actor and as an impersonator is inflexible. Possessed of a modicum of confidence and a flexible voice, he easily shifts from one character to another. His elocutionary work is sympathetic and impressive. The entertainment that he gives is wholesome. It is instructive, dramatic and pleasing. The large audience Wednesday evening was very highly entertained and was well pleased with Mr. Beers' artistic efforts.

VERDICT IS SUSTAINED

One Donnelly Overrules the Motion for a New Trial.

Circuit court convened Thursday at Waukegan at one o'clock, with Judge Charles Donnelly on the bench.

It was the March or spring term of court as many supposed, but is a mere adjournment of the December term. It was expected that the adjournment of the term would take place late Thursday afternoon.

The court was occupied by hearing motions and the general routine work for closing a term.

One of the first things taken up was the motion for a new trial in the case of Mrs. Bertha Kropf against her father-in-law, in which she sued for alienation of her husband's affections. It is recalled at the last session of court, the jury gave a verdict for Mrs. Kropf for $2,500.

The defense moved for a new trial and a few arguments were made Thursday when Judge Donnelly overruled.

Nervous Distortion of Face Cured by attack may be the forerunner of a severe disorder. No nervous sufferer should neglect the warning symptoms, but should see that the starved nerves are nourished before the injury to the delicate organism has gone to an extent that renders a cure a difficult matter. The nerves receive their nourishment through the blood, the same as every other part

"I had been feeling badly for a long time," said Mr. Bemis, "and in the early part of September, 1902, I was compelled to quit work on account of my ill health. I had been suffering from extreme nervousness, then my sight became affected and I consulted an oculist who said I was suffering from paralysis. He treated me for some time, but I got no benefit. I tried another doctor and he also failed to cure me. My nervousness increased. Slight movements would almost make me ill. My mouth was drawn so I could scarcely eat and one eye was affected so I could hardly see. I had very little use of my limbs, in fact I was almost a complete wreck. I was in the right now and am well now. That is because I followed my wife's advice and took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She had used the same remedy herself with the most gratifying results and she persuaded me to try them when it appeared that the doctors were unable to help me. They acted very surely in my case, my face came back into shape and in time I was able to get about.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or by mail by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. A booklet on Nervous Disorders sent free on request.

Whose Say—Is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, how has to take the maker's say no alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicine, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims are everywhere loudly and arrogantly proclaimed upon their makers' say-so or solely. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each bottle, and the names of the persons who suffers are taken from Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes of the names of those who have used several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical authorities as Edw. W. Hunt, M. D., of Hanes Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale, of the same city; Prof. John C. Smith, of the University of Michigan; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio;

Dr. Pierce's "Fruit of the Loom" Medical College, and scores of others equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's "Fruit of the Loom" is a cure for the disease of Female Weakness, prostration and near-venereal and chronic Irritation, and for the various ailments of the Female System, such as the following:—

1. The various weakening drains, common known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other ailments of the Female System.

2. To bind it, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Fruit of the Loom" is a medicine of the highest quality, and of large experience in the cure of Woman's various ailments, who frankly and confidently by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. Of no other kind, and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to let every patient under the same name exactly what he is taking.

A most instructive and entertaining program was given by the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. N. Lantini. The subject for the day was "Italy and Her People."

A fine paper with introductory remarks was read by Mrs. F. E. Lines, her subject being "Ancient and Modern Rome."

A descriptive tour through Italy written by Mrs. J. C. State of Beardstown, Ill., was read by Mrs. M. C. McIntosh. Readings were given by Mrs. J. Schwenm and Mrs. Leroy Powers, and music was furnished by Mrs. W. Welsh and Vern Hawley.

On next Thursday the program daily refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Harriet Howard, Miller, Fletcher and Violet McIntosh. A large attendance of members and guests were present to enjoy the program. On next Thursday the program will be given at the home of Mrs. M. C. McIntosh. A paper on Mozart will be read by Mrs. T. J. Read, and Miss Mabel Mathews, vocalist, of Chicago, will sing several selections. New names are being added to the membership list of the club almost every week, and the high class of the programs given is making the Woman's Club an attractive and instructive gathering, and is doing much to build up an appreciation of the better things in music, art, and literature in our town. There are now thirty-five members in the club.

TULEY MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Will be held in the Auditorium, Chicago, February 10th, at 2 p. m.

Memorial services will be held February 10th at 2 p. m. in the Auditorium, Chicago, at 2 p. m. in honor of the late Judge Murray F. Tuley, under the auspices of the Iron Troupe Club.

Substantially all the clubs and circle bodies of Chicago have united with the Iron Troupe Club in sponsoring vice presidents to attend the services.

Until the supply is exhausted reserved seats may be obtained by readers of THE REVIEW by communicating with the undersigned.

HENRY M. HAGGS, Secretary.

Young Men's Christian Association.

Speaker for Next Sunday,

HOMER F. WILSON,

Of Glenview, 12 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Wilson is not an evangelist, just a plain business man, a marked example of Christian evolution. Having been born in slavery in the South he has passed through the various stages of sport and politics, but he now comes to us as a Christian business man, with a message for business men. Come out and hear him. Next Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. at Y. M. C. A. Rooms.
